Thomas, J. F. Esq.
Walker, J. Esq.

At the Thirty-seventh Annual Meeting of the Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East, held in Exeter Hall, Strand, on Tuesday, May 2, 1837.

The Right Hon. the EARL of CHICHESTER, President, in the Chair.

THE REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE HAVING BEEN READ BY THE CLERICAL SECRETARY—

On a Motion of the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Chichester, seconded by the Rev. Edward Tottenham, of Bath,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That the Report, of which an Abstract has been read, be received, and printed under the direction of the Committee; and that, while this Meeting would thankfully acknowledge the enlargement of the Society's Funds as a token of the Divine Favour, it is encouraged also to regard it as a pledge that the Cause of Missions is gaining ground in the sympathies and intercessions of the Christian Public.

On a Motion of the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Winchester, seconded by the Rev. Professor Scholefield,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That this Meeting heartily rejoices in the quietly-prospering state of the earliest Mission of the Society—that in Western Africa; and, anticipating the approaching period of the complete Emancipation of the Negro Population in the West Indies, is animated by the persuasion that God is answering the prayers of British Christians on behalf of both those long-benighted and afflicted regions.

On a Motion of the Most Hon. the Marquess of Cholmondeley, seconded by Lieutenant Col. Mackworth,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That, while this Meeting deeply laments the out-burst of war in the Southern Stations of the New-Zealand Mission, it would, at the same time, gratefully acknowledge the gracious Hand, by which both the Missionary Labourers themselves and their property have been preserved in safety; and rejoices in the continuance of the Divine Favour to the older Stations of that Mission in the North.

On a Motion by the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Chester, seconded by the Rev. Hugh Stowell,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That this Meeting, contemplating the arduous nature of Missionary Labours in China and South-Eastern Africa, earnestly commends the measures of the Society, with regard to those countries, to the prayers of its Members and friends; that millions of their benighted inhabitants may be made fellow-heirs, and of the same body, and partakers of the promises in Christ by the Gospel.

On a Motion by Sir Robert Harry Inglis, Bart. M. P., seconded by the Rev. J. B. Marsden, of Tooting,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That the thanks of this Meeting be given to the Rev. Thomas Dale, for his Sermon before the Society last evening; to the Right Hon. the President; to the Vice-Patrons and Vice-Presidents; and to all those friends, who, during the past year, have exerted themselves in its behalf;—and that the following Gentlemen be appointed the Commitee for the year ensuing, with power to fill up vacancies. (See List, after Vice-Presidents.)

LAWS AND REGULATIONS

OF THE

CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY FOR AFRICA AND THE EAST.

I. THIS Institution shall be designated "The Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East;" and shall be conducted by Patrons, Vice-Patrons, a President, Vice-Presidents, a Committee, and such Officers as may be deemed necessary, all being Members of the Established Church.

II. The office of PATRONS of the Society shall be reserved for such Members of the Royal Family as may honour it with their protection. VICE-PATRONS shall be appointed exclusively from among the Peers, Spiritual and Temporal. The PRESIDENT shall be such Peer or Commoner, and the VICE-PRESIDENTS such Commoners, as may be appointed thereto.

OF MEMBERS AND GOVERNORS.

III. Annual Subscribers of One Guinea and upwards, and if Clergymen, Half-a-Guinea, with Collectors of Fifty-two Shillings and upwards per annum, shall be Members of the Society during the continuance of such Subscriptions or Collections. Benefactors of Ten Guineas or upwards, Clergymen making Congregational Collections to the amount of Twenty Guineas, and Executors paying to the amount of Fifty Pounds, shall be Members for Life.

IV. Annual Subscribers of Five Guineas shall be Governors during the continuance of such Subscription; and Benefactors of Fifty Pounds and upwards shall be Governors for Life.

V. Members and Governors of Associations who contribute the above sums shall be considered as Members and Governors of the Parent Society.

VI. The Committee shall have the power of appointing such persons as have rendered essential services to the Society, either Members for Life, or Governors for Life.

OF GENERAL MEETINGS.

VII. An Annual Meeting of the Members of the Society shall be held in London, on the First Tuesday in May; unless that day shall fall on the 7th of May, in which case the Annual Meeting shall be held, for that year, on Tuesday, the 30th of April; when the Proceedings of the foregoing year shall be reported, the Accounts presented, and a Treasurer and Committee chosen.

VIII. A Special General Meeting of the Members of the Society, at which not less than Thirty shall constitute a Quorum, shall be called at any time, at the requisition of the General Committee; or by any Thirteen Members, on addressing a Letter to the Secretary, specifying the object of the Meeting. Ten days' notice shall be given in Three public Newspapers, of any such intended Meeting, and of the purpose for which it is called; which shall be deemed sufficient publicity.

IX. None of the Rules of the Society shall be repealed or altered, nor any new ones established, but at the Annual Meeting, or at a Special Meeting called for that purpose.

X. An Anniversary Sermon shall be preached at some Church in London, by a Clergyman appointed by the General Committee. An Annual Report of the Society shall be printed, for the use of its Members.

OF THE COMMITTEE.

XI. The Committee shall consist of Twenty-four Lay Members of the Established Church; and of all such Clergymen as are Members of the Society. Eighteen Members shall be annually appointed from the Old Committee, and Six from the General Body.

XII The COMMITTEE shall elect, at their First Meeting in every year, either from among themselves, or from the other Members of the Society (being Members of the Established Church) a Committee of Patronage, a Committee of Funds, a Committee of Correspondence, and a Committee of Accounts. Each of the said Committees shall keep Minutes of its Proceedings, and shall report the same to the General Committee.

XIII. The office of the Committee of Patronage is, to procure patronage and support to the Society; and to nominate, to the General Committee, proper persons, as Patrons, Vice-Patrons, and Vice-Presidents of the Society.

XIV. The office of the Committee of Funds is, to circulate information respecting the Society; to adopt proper means of augmenting the Subscriptions and Benefactions; to obtain Collections in Churches and Chapels; and to nominate, from time to time, to the General Committee, suitable persons to act as Agents for the Society in the principal Towns throughout the Empire.

XV. The office of the Committee of Correspondence is, to seek for proper Missionaries, to superintend their instruction, and to correspond with them when sent out.

XVI. The office of the Committee of Accounts is, to see that the Subscriptions are duly received, regulate the accounts, and undertake the charge of fitting out and conveying the Missionaries to their places of destination.

XVII. The General Committee shall receive the Reports of the other Committees, shall appoint the places where Missions shall be attempted, shall direct the scale upon which they shall be conducted, and shall superintend the affairs of the Society in general.

XVIII. The General Committee shall meet on the Second Monday in every Month, and oftener if needful; the other Committees as often; and at such places as shall be by them agreed on: their Meetings to be always opened with reading a Form of Prayer composed for that purpose, or one or more suitable Prayers selected from the Liturgy. Five Members shall be necessary to compose a General Committee; and Three, each of the others. In case of equality of votes, the Chairman shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.

XIX. The Patrons, Vice-Patrons, and President, Vice-Presidents, Treasurer, and Secretaries, shall be considered ex-officio Members of all Committees.

XX. Governors, being Members of the Established Church, shall be entitled to attend and vote at all Meetings of the General Committee.

XXI. All Payments on account of the Society shall be signed by Three of the General Committee, in Committee, and the Lay Secretary.

XXII. The Committee shall have power to appoint such Officers and Assistants as they shall deem necessary for the well-conducting of the affairs of the Society, subject to the approbation of the next Annual Meeting.

XXIII. Five Auditors shall be appointed by the Committee, annually, for the purpose of auditing the Accounts of the Society; of whom, Three shall be chosen from the General Body. Three shall be a Quorum.

XXIV. The Life Subscriptions, or a sufficient part thereof, to be equal to the Subscriptions of the existing Members for Life, shall be placed in the Public Funds, in the names of Four of the General Committee; who, on their acceptance of the trust, shall sign a declaration of the nature of it, and that they will relinquish the same whenever called upon for that purpose by the General Committee.

OF MISSIONARIES.

XXV. In the appointment of Candidates for the Missionary Office, the following course shall be pursued:——The Committee of Correspondence having found a person supposed to be suitable, shall determine by ballot to nominate him to the General Committee. Previous to the day of nomination, each Member of the General Committee shall receive notice of such nomination. On the day of nomination, a report shall be made, by some Member of the Committee of Correspondence, of his qualifications; and the General Committee shall then proceed to ballot for him, unless any Member shall declare that he wishes for further information; in which case the ballot shall be deferred till the next Meeting of the General Committee. In the ballot of either Committee, the agreement of at least Three-fourths of the Members present shall be necessary to his election.

XXVI. A Candidate thus chosen shall receive instruction in such parts of knowledge, and be prepared in such a manner for his future employment, as the Committee of Correspondence shall judge expedient.

XXVII. If, during such preparation, any Two Members of the General Committee should see cause to disapprove of his principles or conduct, they may submit the subject to a Special Meeting of the Committee; and, if deemed proper, the Committee may appoint another ballot, to determine whether he shall be continued as a Candidate; of which special notice shall be given to each Member.

XXVIII. Each Candidate shall consider himself as engaged to go to any part of the world, and at any time, which the Committee shall choose: respect, however, being had to his personal circumstances, or to any previous stipulation made by him with the Society. As soon as he quits England, he shall keep a regular Journal of his studies and proceedings; a copy of which he shall send, as often as opportunity shall serve, to the Secretaries.

XXIX. Each Candidate, after due preparation, shall, if not admitted to Holy Orders, be appointed by the Committee to act as a Catechist. If admitted to Holy Orders, he shall be appointed a Missionary.

XXX. The Missionaries who go out under the direction of this Society shall be allowed to visit home, permission having been previously obtained from the General Committee: and after having laboured in the cause of the Society to the satisfaction of the Committee, at the Stations committed to their care, until age or infirmity prevent further exertion, suitable provision shall be made to render their remaining days comfortable. The General Committee shall have the power to assist also, in particular cases, the dependent Relatives of those Missionaries, who, by devoting themselves to the service of the Society, are prevented from contributing to their support.

XXXI. A friendly intercourse shall be maintained with other Protestant Societies engaged in the same benevolent design of propagating the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

XXXII. It is recommended to every Member of the Society to pray to Almighty God for a blessing upon his designs; under the full conviction, that, unless He "prevent us, in all our doings, with His most gracious favour, and further us with His continual help," we cannot reasonably hope to meet with persons of a proper spirit and qualifications to be Missionaries, or expect their endeavours to be crowned with success.

3.—After prayer, the Chairman will make such further observations as he may deem necessary, and then call on Mr. to move the First Resolution.

FIRST RESOLUTION.—Moved by
Seconded by

The object of this Association shall be, to call forth the zeal of well-disposed persons, and particularly those of the Established Church, in support of the Church Missionary Society; and to recommend proper persons who may offer themselves as Missionaries to the Parent Society—to disperse as widely as possible Missionary information—to promote the formation of Branch Associations—and to procure Collections and other Contributions.

VII. The whole of the funds so obtained, after deducting incidental expenses only, shall be remitted to the Church Missionary Society, in aid of its designs.

VIII. A General Meeting shall be held annually, on such day as shall be fixed by the Committee; when a Report of the Proceedings of the Association shall be read, and an account of its receipts and disbursements presented, duly audited.

THIRD RESOLUTION.—Moved by
Seconded by

That the success which, under the Divine Blessing, has attended the Church Missionary Society, in its efforts to make known the Gospel of Christ among the Heathen, is a loud and providential call for increased exertions, for devout thanksgiving to Almighty God, and for continual prayer for a more abundant outpouring of the Holy Spirit, to render the means employed successful.

FOURTH RESOLUTION.—Moved by
Seconded by

That the new and enlarged openings for Missionary exertion, in different quarters, demand our best energies to make known the blessed Gospel of Christ to Heathen and Mahomedan Nations.

SERMON,

JOHN IV. 16.

HE THAT REAPETH RECEIVETH WAGES, AND GATHERETH FRUIT UNTO LIFE ETERNAL: THAT BOTH HE THAT SOWETH AND HE THAT REAPETH MAY REJOICE TOGETHER.

OUR knowledge of God, as the Lord by whom cometh salvation, is derived primarily from the revelation of His word. But we may read Him also—and read Him even as a God of grace—in the living volume of His works. Nay, not unfrequently, the one volume will be found useful to illustrate, or to interpret, the other; the processes of nature, working palpably to sense, being often singularly analogous to those of grace, working inwardly by faith. Such is the case in regard to that simple but most significant similitude of the text, under which Messiah, addressing his Disciples, and in them, obviously, the Universal Church, IMPLIES the PRINCIPLE, ENJOINS the DUTY, and DECLARES the BENEFIT, of labouring according to our ability for the diffusion of the Gospel. A brief exposition of the text, therefore, under each of these several aspects, may advantageously prepare the way for the introduction of the main subject, by practically demonstrating that the limitation of man's knowledge, in respect of the unaccomplished purposes of God, does not obscure the perception of his own responsibility, and ought not, therefore, to circumscribe the performance of his own duty.

Under the expressive similitude of our text, He who spake as never man spake, has first IMPLIED the PRINCIPLE of Missionary effort. And this principle combines two apparent opposites: it at once necessitates the agency of man, and reserves the supremacy of God. By the former, it precludes man from yielding to the bent of his natural indolence, and attempting nothing: by the latter, it annihilates that unseemly arrogance which springs up spontaneously in the rank soil of the heart, and would vaunt an arm of flesh as though it could accomplish every thing. It furnishes, moreover, a prompt reply to the specious cavil of the sceptic, should he ask, either, "Why, if God be a perfect agent, does God need man?" or, "Why, if man be an imperfect agent, does God employ man?" "Lift up thine eyes (we answer), and look abroad upon the face of nature for a reply. Though the husbandman is required to cast into the prolific bosom of the earth the seed that shall there germinate and fructify, till it bring forth seed to the sower, and bread to the eater, is it not the God of nature alone who giveth rain and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness? When the human agent has done his part, must he not still await the early and the latter rain? And is it not because God crowneth the year with His goodness, and maketh His clouds drop fatness, that the valleys stand so thick with corn, as that they laugh and sing? Question, therefore, the sovereignty of the God of nature, because, in providing sustenance for the millions of his creatures, he requires, as means to an end, the agency of man: or, if thou canst not do this, question not the supremacy of the God of grace, because, in the great harvest of souls, which has been growing and gathering from the time of righteous Abel until now, He has been pleased, by similar instrumentality, to operate a similar result. The principle, in either case, is precisely parallel;—man works for God; God works by man. It is for us to employ, it is for Him to bless, the means: and when they HAVE been blessed, to whom belongs the glory of the harvest, but to Him, who sent the showers, and who bestowed the seed?"

There can be no difficulty, therefore, in the APPLICATION of the principle thus implied, whatever there may be in the APPREHENSION of it. There ought to be no hesitation, consequently, as to the DUTY ENJOINED: for duty has reference, not only to principles developed, which might not by some be understood, but to facts demonstrated, which cannot by any be denied. Original sin, that cause of the spiritual sterility that affects the whole human race, while it is the most profound of mysteries, is also the most palpable of facts. Man is, by nature, as barren of all goodness, as the soil, untilled, is devoid of all nutriment; and we are to sow the Gospel, which is the source of spiritual goodness, just as we sow the grain, which is the stay of corporeal life. Who does not know, that, in the natural world, he who should expect harvest without labour would be accounted a positive madman; and he who should reckon confidently on harvest after labour, a presumptuous fool? So in things spiritual, though Paul may plant, and Apollos water, it is God alone who gives the increase. Hence, therefore, we should learn an important—and, in its bearing upon the cause which now assembles us, an invaluable lesson—Duty is irrespective, and independent of results. The aggregate of converts is not the sole test of either the necessity or the efficiency of a Mission. The husbandman must exercise, not patience only, but faith. Wherever the ground is vacant, man is to scatter the seed: and it is equally incumbent on him, not to expect any harvest, if he does NOT sow; and not to calculate too confidently on an abundant harvest, if he does. The seed may not spring up, till he lies low in earth: though even then, as we shall see, his labour will not, even to himself, be lost.

For to all who recognise the PRINCIPLE IMPLIED, and attempt the DUTY ENJOINED, the Lord, in this pregnant though plain similitude, has DECLARED, and ENSURED, a BENEFIT. The benefit is this, He that reapeth, receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal;—words equally applicable to him that soweth, as to him that reapeth; since we read, in the final clause of the text, He that soweth, and he that reapeth, may rejoice together. Now they who sow the seed, depend not, for their hire, on the contingency of its upspringing: they who reap, are not responsible for the weight, or for the quality, of the produce. They do not contract for the showers that shall nourish the corn while standing in the ear, or the suns that shall ripen it, when scattered on the earth. The proprietor of the domain may, or may not, gather fruit; but, beyond all doubt, and without any contingency, the labourer is worthy of his hire. Under this head, however, the comparison falls short; as it must ever do, between things human and things divine: for here, He who employs the sower can command also the elemental influences; He who engages the reaper can also ensure the crop. He, therefore, that soweth, not only receiveth wages, but gathereth fruit unto life eternal. Though he may be arrested in his toil, ere the grain is mature for the sickle, or the seed has even appeared above the ground, yet his labours, we repeat, are not lost, though other men may appear to enter therein; for a day will come—it is already predestined in the purpose of God, for it is predicted in His word—when both he that soweth, and he that reapeth, shall rejoice together.

We have thus, it may be hoped, by a simple and obvious exposition, not only demonstrated the general aptness of the similitude of our text, but prepared the way for its specific application. Whatever theoretical difficulties may beset the subject, we have proved that, practically, there are none; no more being demanded in spiritual things from the disciple who walks by faith, than, in things natural, from the husbandman who must work by faith. Nay, the balance is all in favour of the former. Both depend upon God; but the dependence of the believer is more absolute, his security being more express. For though, in general terms, God has graciously declared, that, while the earth remaineth, seed-time and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night, shall not cease, yet, in particular instances, He turneth a fruitful land into barrenness, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein. In the case contemplated by the text, however, there is no exception—no reserve. He that soweth, though in tears, shall reap; and reap in joy. He that goeth forth weeping, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with joy, and bring his sheaves with him.—He that soweth to the Spirit, shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.

I now proceed to show, in regard to the present condition of the world, and more especially to the operations of that great comprehensive Society in whose advocacy I am commissioned to address you—

I. The DUTY of all who possess the precious seed, to SOW it.

II. The CERTAINTY, that they who SOW shall REAP.

III. The MANNER, in which we can most PROFITABLY PERFORM the DUTY, and most EFFECTUALLY ENSURE the BENEFIT.

And may the pleasure of the Lord now prosper in our hand; "to the setting forth His glory, and setting forward the salvation of all men," through Jesus Christ!

I. Now the seed is the word of God; and it is PRECIOUS, because it is, as the Apostle testifies, INCORRUPTIBLE seed: producing, that is, a harvest, not liable to corruption. The sowing of the precious seed is the diffusing and imparting of the word of life; and our obligation to sow must be proportioned to our estimate of the value and the necessity of the crop. The obligation may be viewed, moreover, as affecting the Church; both collectively, and as extending to the individual members thereof. In nature, if there be no other probable prospect of subsistence; if, without the process of sowing, the staff of life must be broken, and death and desolation afflict the land; if the wolfish longing of the cannibal must burn like fever, even in the father's veins, and scorch and sear to adamant even the mother's heart; to what would the wilful neglect of seed-time, on the part of the whole community, be equivalent, but to an act of national suicide? If, again, a distant colony were dependent on the surplus produce of the land which sent it forth, and yet enough were designedly sown only for home consumption, to what would that be equivalent, but to an act of national fratricide? It would be, to exhibit, but on a more extended stage, the hideous character of Cain; and to bring down the curse of a brother's blood, crying against the guilty nation, from the ground on which the dead lay strewed. Like the first sin—like national suicide—would be the crime of the Church; which is bound, as the first principle of her moral code, To love the Lord her God with all the heart; did she take no care to provide a sufficient ministration of God's word throughout the circumference of her immediate domestic responsibilities. Like the second—like national fratricide—would be her crime, if, forgetful of the second great principle of Christian morals, like unto the first, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, she made no effort, no PROPORTIONATE effort, to uphold and extend similar ministrations in those her Missionary Stations, which are her own colonies planted in heathen lands; and all around which there is a craving and a hungering, not for the natural sustenance, but for the bread which came down from heaven, and which alone giveth life unto the world.

It is not, however, as to the general principle of obligation and of necessity, where a Church and a nation are viewed in parallel, that men will either impugn or evade the comparison which the text suggests: it is in respect of INDIVIDUAL practice and effort that such comparison is suffered to fall short. This arises from the very mode in which we live. Man, in a state of solitude, must sow, or he must starve: man, in a state of society, may be supported by the agency of others; and the exertions of a part, gradually diminishing in its proportion as the aggregate is multiplied, are sufficient for the sustenance of the whole. This, however, applies not to a Christian Church. The very principle, on which it is based, repudiates all substitution of labour; and necessitates individual effort, by imposing individual responsibility. Every one who would receive wages, and gather fruit into life eternal, must sow, or he must REAP. There is no privileged or favoured class; no discharge from the labour; no exemption from the reckoning. Every man hath his proper gift of God. Every man, according as he hath received a gift, so let him minister the same. None of us liveth to himself. The voice is not mute—it never shall be, until it hath rent the graves and roused the dead—which proclaimed, many centuries ago, to a hesitating Disciple, and still proclaims to every inactive member of a slumbering and lethargic Church, Let the dead bury their dead; but go thou, and preach the kingdom of God. Is it replied, that though to this hour the kingdom of God is preached, and many press into it, yet there is such a stagnation among the dry bones in the valley of vision, that those who prophesy, as to the dead, have too much cause to take up Isaiah's mournful strain, Who hath believed our report? Alas! (we answer) who can tell how far the evaporation, the absorption of the TRUE principle of Christian effort, in the atmosphere of a world where greediness of gain is too often blended in a strange affinity with the professed preference and pursuit of godliness, may have constituted, through ages, the barrier to that consummation of the Divine purposes of mercy, for which all creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now? Who can decide what dark clouds are interposed —I say not by the presumption and the profligacy of those who deny or dishonour the Lord that bought them, but by the negligence, the inconsistency, the worldliness, even of those who bear the Saviour's name, and should be unwearied in the Saviour's cause—to obstruct and to retard the dawn of that bright and blessed era, when sin and misery will divide the world no more; when the hand of Omnipotence shall roll away the reproach of human kind; when all shall know God, from the least even to the greatest; and the earth shall be filled with the glory of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea?

We will not dwell, therefore, in GENERAL terms, on the duty and the obligation of the Church of Christ, which none who are called Christians deny: we will confine ourselves to the claim upon INDIVIDUAL effort, which too many, who we trust ARE Christians, neglect. The question, in which each is vitally interested, as the ground of admission to all he desires, and of deliverance from all he fears, throughout the undeveloped mysteries of an eternal duration—"Art thou born of the Spirit?" carries with it another—"Art thou giving evidence of this new creation? Art thou sowing to the Spirit, that of the Spirit thou mayest reap life everlasting?" To possess the precious seed, to confess its transcendent excellence, to feel its paramount necessity, and, with all this, not to scatter it, is much the same thing as to love God without loving our brother: of which, if the venerable John does not declare it in terms to be a direct moral impossibility, he yet demands, "How can it be?" How CAN it be? Too often, alas! not only the spirit of the age we live in, but the practice of too many whose vital union to Christ we cannot doubt—perhaps OUR OWN practice—would seem to answer that IT IS. For how does God give; and how does man receive? and how does man return? God's mercies—the riches of his mercy, magnified and manifested to sinners in the precious blood of His only-begotten Son—flow to us in a deep channel, and with a copious stream: fresh springs of blessing, even in the busy world around us, gush forth on every side: and on the Rest of the Holy Sabbath, a river of divine consolation maketh glad the city of God; but on our part, a few drops of moisture are wrung out of the stony heart, or trickle from the half-closed hand: and we call this an acknowledgment, if we do not count it a return. Here and there, it may be, one is found, who seeks to water others even as he has been watered himself—one, who gives proportionably of his abundance to the God who has given him all: and where such is the case, eloquence is lavished and exhausted in the eulogy of Christian beneficence; nor does it ever strike men, that the excess of their admiration, and the vehemence of their applause, are, in truth, the most bitter reflection, the most humiliating reproach, as to the absence, in so many of themselves, of devotion, and love, and gratitude. Let watch-fires be lighted simultaneously on the summit of a thousand hills, and the eye will no longer be rivetted upon one; though that which was the first to blaze will yet send up an equal glare to heaven!

We may here, however, be met by the inquiry: "And what, in our own case, is the part of duty? what is the province of exertion? what should be the demonstration, and what the exercise of faith? Are all Apostles? are all Teachers? are all Ministers of God, and stewards of the mysteries of Christ? are all endued with wisdom? are all enriched with knowledge, though some are rude of speech? Should all go forth as Missionaries into other lands, or stand forth as public Teachers in their own?"—We reply, that if the best gifts are the portion only of a few, the more excellent way is closed against none. God has given to all His people the means of glorifying Him—to each his proper gift—his measure or proportion of the good seed. He that cannot speak in public, as the Oracles of God, may minister in private, as of the ability which God giveth. He who, even in the social circle, even around the domestic hearth, has, through diffidence or unbelief, a seal upon his lips, may yet exercise self-restraint and self-denial, in order to give with singleness of heart. He who is constrained —O hard trial of faith!—to glorify God by receiving thankfully what he was once wont to dispense liberally, may at least show mercy and kind offices: and he to whom it is allotted not to act with energy, like Paul itinerating, but to suffer with patience, like Paul in bonds, may yet, though confined within his chamber or fettered to his couch, dispense invaluable benefits through a dark neighbourhood or a benighted region, by effectual fervent prayer. According to the similitude of the text, all, throughout the various gradations of Christ's Church, are entrusted with a measure of the seed; and all, therefore, are bound to sow, though with different prospects, and on a different soil;—some, in the luxuriant and well-watered valley; some, on the sunny slopes of the verdant hill; some, in the deep and tangled glade, where never sun-beam penetrates the leafy screen; some, among thorns and briars; some, on the bleak brow of the precipice; some, by the way-side; some, on the parched and barren waste, from which it would seem to every eye, save that of faith, no spot could ever be reclaimed; some, again, are privileged to pour forth seed in handfuls, pressed down and shaken together, and running over; some constrained to scatter, as it were, grain by grain, wherever there is a scanty deposit of soil in the cavity of the rifted rock: but all are to sow in their respective spheres of action, and all according to the measure of their several abilities.—And, in the issue, which are the more honoured? They to whom, in a propitious spot and clime, the liberal earth brings forth by handfuls? or they, who, with much heaviness of heart and much wrestling of prayer, wring forth, as it were by the sweat of their brow, a few thin and hungry ears, as an offering from the moral desert to the God of Righteousness? —Brethren, be it ever borne in mind, that the amount of success is neither the measure of effort, nor the criterion of duty. The increase is not what man compels, but God bestows: and how often does that very increase prove, that He hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things that are mighty; and things which are despised, yea, and things which are not, to bring to nought things that are. The pleadings of an infant have ere now prevailed, where the warnings of a Prophet had been in vain; and the giant, who defied a warrior's spear, hath fallen by a stripling's hand. None, it is evident, can reap, unless they sow; none can gather fruit, except they toil: and whether the increase be a hundred or a thousand-fold, whether it be but ten-fold or two-fold, the issue is the same; he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit to life eternal. And though it may be ordained, in the inscrutable purposes of Divine Wisdom, that one should sow and another reap, yet, when the end shall come, it shall be recompensed to every man according to his work; and both he that soweth, and he that reapeth, shall rejoice together.

The DUTY then, with the motives and obligations to its performance, may be simply stated thus: It is the execution of a trust, with which, in the Church of Christ, all are put in charge: it is the acknowledgment of an obligation, which has been conferred equally upon all: it is the expectation of a benefit, to which all are permitted to aspire, and which all, who seek, shall be enabled to attain. It is the accredited, enjoined, indispensable token of union to Christ, and membership with His Church. He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me, scattereth abroad. It is not an option, but an obligation; not a choice, but a necessity—alike incumbent and imperative, whatever the sphere of labour, and whatever the prospect of success. Blessed are ye that sow beside all waters! Nor is there any dry and barren land, to which the duty should not, and the promise does not, extend: for—sooner than fruit shall fail, where faith and love and zeal abound—Behold, I will do a new thing (declared God); now it shall spring forth: shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert;—and the parched ground shall become a pool, and the thirsty land springs of water;—and they shall spring up as among the grass, as willows by the water-courses.

Such, then, is the duty to be performed. We come now to consider—

II. The CERTAINTY, that they who SOW shall REAP;—probably, in the souls of others; assuredly, in their own. But who shall tell us what it is, to reap the harvest of an immortal soul?

The simple notion of eternity, so far as it is conceivable, is also overpowering. The spirit is oppressed, and the brain whirls round, as we address ourselves to ponder upon space without measure, and duration without end. The very immensity of the subject is too often made an apology for withholding due consideration from it. It is a fearful thing for man, even under the better and brighter aspect of the enlightened understanding, the awakened conscience, and the renewed heart, to shut himself up in solitude, and meditate upon eternal and unchanging destinies—on souls, immortal as his own, excluded for ever from the realms of light and joy, and consigned to darkness that never can be scattered, and despair that can never be relieved! Meditation, then, that might be profitable, is avoided, because it is painful: and, conversant as we are about things which perish in the using, and connected with each other by ties which are separable by death, yet important in their sphere, and even involving Christian duty, we eagerly catch at every pretext for merging the greater in the less, and losing sight, in objects exclusively temporal, of claims and concerns which are strictly spiritual and eternal. By this repugnance, natural to, though not excusable in, man, the cause of Missions has suffered beyond every other: we do not appreciate the high honour conferred upon us by God, in deigning to employ, for the conversion of sinners, which is the salvation of souls, an instrumentality that is strictly human: we do not recognise aright the weighty responsibility which is consequently imposed on us, of exerting every power, and combining every energy, to fulfil the high purpose of God in the subjugation of all nations to the sceptre and sway of Messiah, His Son. That this purpose would be fulfilled without us—since His counsel shall stand, and He will do all His pleasure—is no plea for indifference or inactivity. The harvest is dependent on influences beyond our controul; yet it is for our hand to commit the seed to the soil; and it is ours, also, to await the result with patience and in faith. Brethren, said the Apostle James, if any of you do err from the truth, and one convert him, let him know, that he that converteth a sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins. Is not this equally predicable of one who has never known the truth as of one who has erred from it? Is it not reasonable, that the same effort which is made for the recovery of the lapsed, should be made also for the rescue of the lost? Nay, in the one case, our sympathies as men are superadded to our responsibilities as Christians; and we would purchase the return of some dear friend or relative, who had wandered from the right way, at any sacrifice less than that of our own souls. In scattering the Gospel seed, however, at the price of much exertion and sacrifice, over the wide moral waste of Heathenism, the work is evidently a WORK OF FAITH, and the end is especially the GLORY OF GOD. We see not what is produced; our dependence is only upon the promise; and labouring in the confidence of this, surely we shall be blessed in the deed!

And let it here also be taken into account, that the measure of what is accomplished by individual effort, however undistinguishable by man, will be brought to light by the discoveries of the Great Day. Here we only observe the collective exertions of the Church. To human apprehension, all contributions, especially such as are offered on an occasion like the present, appear to be merged in one common fund; and, according to their varying estimate of duty, some applaud the liberality, while others lament over the insensibility and apathy, of the Church. Nothing, however, can merge the literal accomplishment of the pledge, that with what measure we mete, it shall be measured to us again. Though it is the movement and energy of the entire body which attracts the attention of man, there is an Eye that incessantly marks, and a Voice that will eventually and unerringly declare, what every joint supplieth. Think ye that the many noble acts of devotedness and self-denial, which have adorned the annals of this Society—and I speak not here of the thousands or the hundreds of the titled and the opulent, who had thousands or hundreds still to spare; but of the hard-earned offering, wrung from the sweat of honest labour; the secret sacrifice of the orphan, or of the widow, all but destitute; the precious, though scanty savings of deep poverty, hoarded up, and drawn forth by the constraining influence of the love of Christ—acts of genuine benevolence, the memory of which has perished with the authors, and were never known to man, and never can be known on this side the grave—think ye that these have not their own memorial before God? Will one such example of love overmastering destitution, and faith constraining unbelief, be overlooked this night? Brethren, such is a special offering, and will draw after it a special blessing. Whatever is thus given, is neither lost nor absorbed. And were offerings of such a character accumulated in such a spirit, O, who can compute what blessed results might follow over the boundless and now almost hopeless field of the Society's operations—how soon the wilderness and the solitary place might be glad for them, and the desert might rejoice, and blossom as the rose?

One thing at least is clear, in which we are all most nearly concerned. There is a portion of the benefit—a portion, in magnitude and in moment, far distancing all the rest—which is not contingent; which is not prospective; which is not affected by circumstances; which is not deferred till Judgment—The liberal soul shall be enriched; and he that watereth shall be watered also himself. As the human body is full of arteries and vessels, intersecting each other in every direction, and acting with equal vigour and vitality upon the Peasant, who knows nothing of the direction in which they spread or the functions which they perform, as upon the Philosopher, to whose eye has been unveiled, by long and patient study, the marvellous and fearful mechanism of man; so the varied and manifold duties of the Believer harmonize in one perfect scheme of moral right; and, by the combination, the soul's health is preserved, even where the connexion is lost in the complexity. The exercise of grace, under one aspect, leads to the communication of grace under another; and thousands have doubtless experienced, though they could not so well define, what a distinguished servant of Christ has left on record, "That in administering consolation to the sufferers of his flock, he found for himself that peace and comfort which he vainly sought at home." So will it be in our own instance. The way to obtain a blessing is, the endeavour to impart it. God ministereth seed to the sower: and if it be more blessed to give than to receive, wherefore is this, but because, to give to men for Christ's sake, is the way to receive from Christ for His own? He multiplies the seed sown, and increases the fruits of righteousness. Without, therefore, the slightest vestige of a meritorious claim,—for when we have done all, we are but unprofitable servants; and when we have bestowed all, this, too, cometh of Thine hand, and is all Thine own,—we may, it is evident, carry on a very profitable merchandize with the mammon of unrighteousness: and though we brought nothing into this world, neither can we carry any thing out, yet a large portion of the talents committed to our occupation may be thus so invested, as to produce an abundant, an incalculable return. Nay, we may infer the preciousness of that which SHALL BE, by considering the excellency of that which IS;—for what powerful and what benignant influence is exercised over our lot, even in the present life, by associating, as we are now associated, in the effort to win souls! What holy affections are excited—what devout sensibilities called forth—what confidence, what tenderness generated in families and between friends—what unity of spirit compacted and cemented among the members of the brotherhood of Christ! When do we more sensibly feel, than on such occasions as the present, that one is our Master, even Christ, and that all we are brethren? When do we more unfeignedly love? when, more devotedly worship? when, more triumphantly praise? When do we take up, with livelier emotions of ardent gratitude and holy love, the transporting acclamation of the Redeemed, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain? When are we more of one heart and of one mind—less disposed to presume on what we have, as if ought that we possessed was our own—more closely approximating to that happy condition of the Church, of which we read, that great grace was upon them all? When have we less of the alloy of earth? when are we more allied to Heaven? Ah, Brethren! you who are present—as we would trust all are—under the commanding influence of the faith that worketh by love—you, at least, will depart hence with the conviction, that it is good to be here.—Faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it; and it is He that hath promised; and therefore the benefit is sure!

Yes, here is its unrivalled and here its indisputable perfection. It is SURE;—SURE to the Church; SURE to ourselves. We know that our labour is not in vain in the Lord. How the purposed and promised benefit may come, we know not. It may come slowly; it may come heavily and painfully; it may come—it is coming—to the Church, at least to this Society, which we regard as the Church embodied for Missionary enterprise—through many discouragements, many disappointments, arising not only from those who professed to embrace the Gospel, but even from those who preached it, and who seemed, like the Apostle, ready, not to be bound only, but to die for the name of the Lord Jesus;—it may come, perhaps it IS coming, to ourselves, through darkness and disaster and disquietude; through much sorrow, and continual heaviness of heart; through fightings without, and fears within; through artifices of feigned friends, and perils of false brethren; through bereavement of the wife the desire of the eyes, or of the child the delight of the heart, or of the friend the second and dearer self; through wearisome days and nights of vanity; through disease, which hopes no aid in life; and languor of declining years, which knows no cure but death;—it may thus be coming even now. But though it tarry, let us wait for it;—in due season we shall reap, if we faint not. It is written, as with a pencil of light, on the history of departed ages;—it flashes, as a beam of surpassing lustre and glory, from the bright cloud of witnesses by whom we are encompassed on every side; it has been the charter and the covenant of blessing to millions who are now entered into rest and inheriting the promises; that labour in the Lord is labour that can never be in vain. It is seed, that cannot be choked by thorns, nor trodden down by the way-side; nor withered, in its early germination, by the scorching summer sun. It may be hidden, for a long time, beneath the black and heavy soil; long after the period hope had fondly fixed, it may remain impervious to the kindly influences of nature; but in due season it shall spring fresh and vigorous from the ground, even as Jesus rose triumphant from the grave. His glorious Resurrection is the pledge for the up-springing of all seed that is sown in righteousness; and only the final and decisive hour, when that which was sown in corruption is raised in incorruption, and that which was sown in weakness is raised in power—only THAT hour will fully develope what was the mind of the Spirit, when He commanded to write, Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord!—what was the benignant purpose of the Saviour, when He pronounced and ratified the invaluable promise of our text—He that reapeth, receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal; that both he that soweth, and he that reapeth, may rejoice together.

Having thus, First, ENFORCED the DUTY of SOWING the GOOD SEED of the Gospel; and, Secondly, DECLARED the CERTAINTY, that they who SOW shall REAP; we come now, in the Third and last place, to the more immediate object of our present assemblage—To point out the MANNER in which we can most PROFITABLY PERFORM the DUTY, and most EFFECTUALLY ENSURE the PROMISE; to point out, in other words, over what field the seed is to be scattered; what harvest we may hope to sow for others; and what we may calculate upon reaping for ourselves.

III. In describing the field over which the seed is to be scattered, we may adopt the words of the Lord himself, 'THE FIELD IS THE WORLD.' The truly philanthropic and eminently Christian Society, whose efforts we are here to acknowledge and to aid, knows no limits to her operation, but those of misery and mankind. East, West, North, South —wherever the poisonous breath of sin infects the universe, and Death follows close upon the scent, panting to devour the bodies and destroy the souls of men—she aspires to send that Gospel of Salvation, which is the only antidote to the venom, and the only antagonist to the foe. Wherever Satan hath reared his strong-holds among men, it is her high and holy aim to despatch the warriors of the Cross, to unfurl the Gospel banner, and to proclaim the Great Captain of Salvation. Her sphere of action is limited by nothing but her ability to occupy it: and if, as yet, that sphere is occupied only to such an extent, that the proportion of Missionaries, including, under that term, even Native Teachers, male and female, is little more than as ONE to ONE MILLION—at the rate of TWENTY to the British Empire, where more than half as many thousand Preachers of the Gospel are found altogether insufficient to grapple with heathenism at home—if this be the extent to which alone the sphere is occupied, how can we account for such disproportion, but by the painful alternative, that there are few who have freely received, or, that they who have freely received are unwilling freely to give?

Now, it is not our intention to circumnavigate the globe, only that we may make out an appalling, harrowing statement of spiritual destitution: we do not propose to traverse that hideous wilderness of moral desolation, through which the seed of the Gospel requires to be scattered, and by YOU: we shall not detain you to point out, here and there, perhaps, fields white for harvest, but, in the far greater proportion, thorns and thistles, proving earth cursed for man's sake—barren tracts, without a streamlet or a spring—salt and fetid marshes, whence exhalations only of pestilence arise. We need not force ourselves to dwell upon the manifold varieties of human depravity and degradation in either hemisphere—upon the bondage of the members, and the more abject vassalage of the mind;—here, intelligent and immortal beings, for the sole crime of a sable complexion, deprived—and that, too, in 'a land' misnamed 'of liberty'—deprived of the rights of the citizen upon earth, and almost of the hope of the Christian beyond the grave;—and there, the votaries of a debasing and destroying superstition, impatient of labour, though indifferent to death, and thinking, by the maiming or maceration of the body, to make atonement for the sin of the soul. We will not conduct you to the obscene rites of the idolater, nor lead you to the hideous orgies of the cannibal, nor explore with you the dark chambers of imagery, nor track—by streams of blood, and mangled members, and bodies writhing in the death-agony—the course of the idol's car. As to these things, what testimony is to be compared with theirs who speak that they do know, and testify that they have seen? It is for those veterans, who have fought in distant lands under the banner of the Cross, to transport you, by the sympathy of a kindred spirit, to the parched plains of the Orient; or to the regions where nature stiffens in eternal snow; or to those remoter Isles, where the choicest gifts of nature are lavished upon the vilest of the human race; and suns are most bright and skies most clear over the regions which send up the foulest breath of pollution to the face of heaven, like gilded imagery upon a coffin, or the marble facing of a charnel-house. I would only remand you hence to the most accessible spot on earth, from which some perhaps came hither; and to which, I trust, many will repair hence—the oratory of their own home. We would have each enter into his closet, and shut his door about him—and exclude all, but that which he cannot exclude—the Presence that pervades creation; and then demand of himself—alone, as he will be, with God—but not as yet, as he shall one day be, with God manifested face to face: "And what HAVE I done—what AM I doing — to scatter the good seed of the Gospel over the barren void of the heathen world? What HAVE I done, what AM I doing, for the furtherance of that object which brought my Saviour down to earth, from the glory which He had with the Father before the world was?

What portion of the substance, which He hath committed to me, am I occupying, in a work incomparably the most momentous of all that are transacted beneath the canopy of heaven? What sacrifice am I making; to what privations am I submitting; that I may make known to those who are dwelling in darkness the Gospel of the Grace of God? Redeemed from sin—and death, the consequence and curse of sin—by an incorruptible thing, the precious blood of the Lamb without blemish and without spot, to what extent am I employing in the momentous work of Redemption, my corruptible things, the silver and the gold? Am I prepared, only reserving enough for all requisite and legitimate purposes of life, to consider these as elements, as materials, by which I am to afford evidence of my love to Christ? Am I content to pour them at the foot of the Cross? Do I count the best use of them to be found in the bestowment—the best fruit, in the reversionary recompence of reward?"—Then, where is the proof? What am I now doing for the great cause? Is my effort such, that when my Saviour asks, 'Lovest thou me,' I can lay it at His feet, with the prompt and unfaltering answer, 'Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee?'

That such an examination would be conducted on principles essentially and unquestionably Scriptural, none, we are persuaded, will deny. And they are principles equally applicable to Missionary Societies of every description. Would to God they might be thus applied! For mark what effects would follow, were they acted out in regard to THIS, with which alone we have to do! SEVENTY-FIVE Ordained Missionaries are at this time employed by the Church Missionary Society. The examination to which I have referred, conducted in a right spirit, and pursued to a legitimate conclusion, would at once multiply that number TENFOLD. And here is the proof. Did the standard which we have suggested apply, as it ought, universally throughout the Church, not a few among us, who have inherited ample possessions; or whose efforts, professional or commercial, God has signally blessed; and whose annual income doubles, in thousands, the hundreds that would support a Missionary;

would have each HIS OWN SPECIAL REPRESENTATIVE ministering the Gospel to the Heathen, scattering among them, in his stead—because, through his means—the seed of life, and thus supplying his lack of PERSONAL service: and the consciousness of duty so performed, and of love so displayed, and of obligation so confessed, would be far more than equivalent, even in real present gratification, to the ostentatious exhibition of a costly equipage—to the cumbrous parade of a numerous and superfluous retinue, or the multiplication of house upon house, and field upon field. Now, where this is done—and in one or two instances it IS done—it is boasted of, and blazoned abroad, as an instance of peculiar and unparalleled munificence; a triumph of grace over mammon, a trophy of the Church over the world. Alas! the singularity should rather be, that it is not done more frequently; and that, out of the myriads who verbally confess Christ, there is scarcely ONE of a generation who will confess Him THUS. Were opulent Christians thus true to their principles and to their Master, I conclude that ONE HUNDRED Missionaries might be at once added to the active Emissaries and Labourers of this Society. But next, there is a principle of combination, which is so often injuriously, that it might well be, for once, profitably applied. Where the burden is too heavy for one, why should not TWO, or FOUR, or SIX, if linked together in close bonds of kindred, or by the closer tie of Christian brotherhood, combine to maintain THEIR OWN Missionary? Why should not the various members of families, whom God hath blessed, be led thus to offer a living tribute to His praise? What richer, costlier, more prevailing incense could arise to Heaven, on their behalf, than the orisons of those who have been thus reclaimed from darkness to God's marvellous light; and thus taught, by their honoured instrumentality, to lift up holy hands, and an humble heart? Thus, then, we might calculate speedily upon ONE HUNDRED Missionaries more. But if, again, there are many instances of disciples who can bestow largely, but not to this extent, is not the principle which we have laid down ESPECIALLY applicable to Congregations? Cannot the Pastor urge upon his flock to adopt, as the lowest, such a scale of congregational contributions, as shall ensure for them ONE who shall represent them in the benighted empire of ignoance, and among the godless hordes of idolatry and superstition? Why should not the sword of the Spirit be unsheathed, why should not the banner of Salvation be unfurled, at their proper cost, and in their special name, by some intrepid warrior of Christ; who has abjured home, with all its comforts—kindred, with all its charities—society, with all its indulgences and delights—country, with all the ties which it entwines so tenaciously around the heart, in order to be their delegate in the great work of preaching the Word of God? In the turbulent period of our own national history, when Liberty was struggling to the birth, but there was no strength to bring forth, and the State, in sore travail, was compelled to maintain a precarious existence at the point of sword and spear;—every adequate portion of land sent forth its own warrior, armed and equipped, to battle, for his country's honour, and his own dear domestic hearth;—and for these, even the vassals of arbitrary power would contend, as though they were freemen like ourselves, and struck for liberty. Cannot something like this be accomplished, in this noblest of causes, by the voluntary energies of the Church? Cannot the parish which sent one, or the city which furnished perhaps a hundred warriors, provide A SINGLE MISSIONARY? Surely the sanctities of our Sabbath Worship would be enhanced, animated, and effectuated, by the consciousness, that in other lands there was ONE to bear testimony, through our agency, to the name of Jesus of Nazareth—ONE, to scatter that seed, on our behalf, of which we should never see the harvest, till we reaped it in life eternal. Oh! if ONE THOUSAND congregations were thus stirred up throughout the land, in our own Church alone, to say nothing of other Denominations of Christians; nay, if one half this number, not ONE in TWENTY, throughout the empire, were kindled, as by a tongue of fire glanced from heaven, into this divine work of faith and labour of love, then would our calculation be complete;—then would flow into the desolate wastes of Heathenism a full and gracious tide, not of SEVENTY, but of SEVEN HUNDRED Missionaries, to testify among all nations the wonderful works of God. And who can set bounds to the benefit, which might be expected, under God's guidance and blessing, to result from an accession like this; when it is remembered, that at the first gathering of the Church the number of the names together was but a hundred and twenty; and yet from this handful of sowers was diffused the seed the fruit of which now covers half the globe, and which shall, we trust, continue to multiply and increase, till, as the waters cover the sea, it shall fill the earth with the glory of the Lord?

It now only remains to stir you into instant and energetic action, by the memorial of the PROMISE, and the contemplation of the BENEFIT.

We may expect to see much, even in this our day, if only expectation be connected with unwearied and unrelaxing effort. Let seed be scattered over the hardest rock or along the dreariest wilderness—beneath the most clouded sky, and in the most inhospitable clime—wherever a path is open to the intrepid adventurer, who goes forward in the name of his God, making mention of His righteousness, even of His only. Still more, whenever the voice cries, as the man of Macedonia, Come over and help us! gather assuredly that the Lord hath called you to preach the Gospel unto them. And if ye need encouragement to the work, lift up your eyes, and look upon the trackless range of this Society's inestimable labours, and see how many fields are white already to harvest! Look, first, where the great cloud of witnesses is condensed with most vivid lustre; where the spirits of the Just made perfect most loudly call; where the ground is hallowed at every step by the memory of departed saints, who have fought a good fight, and finished their course, and kept the faith! Look upon the Orient, with its 300 Missionaries and Teachers; 11,000 Children receiving instruction in the principles of the faith of Christ; unnumbered copies of the pure word, the incorruptible seed, scattered among the swarming millions, who are hourly dropping into eternity, without a thought of their everlasting doom!

Look Westward, again, across the broad Atlantic; and behold, in the regions where the stern brow and iron glance of Slavery seemed for ages to have converted human hearts to stone; behold a goodly band, outnumbering many times the glorious company of the Apostles, lighting up the spark of heavenly knowledge within the soul, which was once darker than the body's sable tint—unsealing the sacred fountain, that can cleanse the heart, if it does not blanch the skin! Look Northward, again, for a sapling of the Tree of Life, planted as in a wilderness of ice, and flourishing amidst Polar snows; yet bearing fruit, even here, for the healing of the nations, and causing the country, which is like a desert, and which you may traverse for six days of the week with scarce a sight of the human countenance divine, to burst into sudden life and motion on the Day of the Lord!—fit emblem, we trust, of the Christian Church, now that the Sabbath of the world draws nigh, and we fondly anticipate, when the cycle of the six thousand years is full, the appearance of the new heavens and the new earth wherein dwelleth righteousness.—"We never see a concourse of people," is the simple but forcible language of the Missionaries, "except at church."—Is not, then, this weekly assemblage of seven hundred worshippers not only the sign of a field ripe for harvest, but ITSELF a recompence, far transcending all your cost and toil? Nay, take a circuit of the globe, and look, toward the South, at the scene of the Society's most strenuous and persevering efforts—and, I fear that we must add, of its severest and most perplexing trials—where only a few grains of seed have yet sprung up to view upon plains which have long been moistened with human blood; even THERE are upwards of fifteen hundred natives attendant on the ministry of the Gospel; one thousand children are under a course of Christian instruction; and upwards of SIXTY disciples, many of whom have left father, mother, kindred, country, friends, for Christ's sake and the Gospel's, invoke, at their monthly festival of love, the outstretched arm of the Lord, that He would arise, and take all heathen to His inheritance!—And shall such pleadings be in vain? Not, surely, if they are seconded, as they ought to be, by corresponding efforts in this most favoured of European lands;—not, surely, if they who know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ are, as they must be, or OUGHT to be, unfeignedly concerned to impart it;—not, surely, if the cry of simultaneous intercession, echoing from all parts of the Church, "Lord! how long?" be not as the sounding brass of an idle ostentation, or the tinkling cymbal of a hollow formalism;—not, surely, if they who seek the Lord will give Him no rest till He make that remotest and most polluted speck of creation, even as Jerusalem of old, and beyond our Father-land, a glory and a praise in the earth.—O, then, do not rest in unavailing desires, which make no effort toward their own fulfilment! but, while you blend your supplications, let your efforts be united too. Show your faith in the efficacy of PRAYER, by multiplying and extending on every side the instrumentality of MEANS: and if the Lord do not—as yet we trust He will!—hasten His work in our own time, at least into our own bosom shall return the promise; and the seed which we have sown in faith and hope for others, shall spring into a harvest of blessing and of glory for ourselves.

Here then, Christian Brethren, we would finally rest the appeal which has been made to you this night, in the name of the adorable Redeemer, and on behalf of a benighted world. Exhorting you to sow, we engage that you shall REAP; or rather, HE engages, by us, whose word can never return unto Him void; whose promise can never be embraced in vain. Who needs to be reminded—for it is in truth among the rudiments of our faith—that the whole of life is but a seed-time for eternity? Who does not know, that in the great decisive Day, which shall vindicate the justice of God, and determine the destinies of man, he shall himself reap even as he hath sown, and gather even as he hath strewed? It is, then, the cause of YOUR OWN souls, as well as of the perishing Heathens, that I plead. For who would not gather to himself a good reward in the day of necessity? who would not delight himself in the abundance of the fruit of eternal life? But more especially, the work, in which you are now invited to co-operate heart and hand, commends itself equally as a work of faith, and as a labour of love: for who does not feel, that the faith to be exercised is in proportion to the difficulties to be encountered; and that only the love, which, in the infinite mind of Messiah, wrought out our redemption, can, as reflected from Him, and imparted by Him, make the salvation of the heathen world even possible by such instrumentality as that of man? Let each, then—detached from the mass around him, as he will be distinct from it in death, and at Judgment, and to all eternity—consider solemnly within himself, "The work of sowing is mine. It would be so, were I in the desolate condition of the Prophet, who counted himself the sole survivor of God's people upon earth, complaining, 'Lord, I am left alone!' How much more, then, when Christ hath reserved to Himself, not SEVEN, but SEVENTY TIMES SEVEN THOUSAND in this His spiritual Israel, who are prepared to form the dense array, and to lift the standard of the Cross against the enemy, that cometh in like a flood. It would be so, had no measure of the divine blessing followed visibly the fulfilment of the divine command—had not one springing blade appeared above the soil—had not one soul been known to mature for glory under these associated efforts of the Church of Christ. How much more, then, when at least enough of success has been vouchsafed to afford a dawn of hopeful promise; when many spots are covered, as with the verdure of a rising and still increasing crop; when there is the evidence, the unsuspicious evidence of the death-bed, that the sickle of the Destroying Angel has mown down many converts, reclaimed from idolatry and superstition, not in the autumn only, but the spring of life, whom grace had already matured for immortality." But here let each of us add, "If the work is mine, the blessing may be mine also. Whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. He who demands my service—He who has promised to remember and requite my toil—is one whom I shall see for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not another. Let me then now, before God and man, anticipate the solemn hour, when they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness, as the stars for ever and ever! Let me do as I would wish to havedone, when the veil of the flesh shall be rent asunder, and I shall stand face to face with Him, whom, having not seen, I love! Let me give, as I would then desire to receive! Let me measure out the precious seed, as I would that the fruit of the heavenly harvest should then be meted out to me! Let the standard of my love to the souls of the perishing Heathen be that of the love of Christ to mine!—though I can but give corruptible things, the silver and the gold, where HE freely poured forth His own precious blood, as of a Lamb without blemish and without spot. But He did what He could;—and with Him all things were possible;—and therefore am I saved! MY strength is but as weakness; and my wisdom as foolishness. I can but oppose a feeble hand to the torrent of Ignorance at home, and light up a dim and flickering torch amidst the darkness of Heathenism abroad; yet, strong in the faith, let my memorial also be the same with Messiah's. Let the servant here be as his Master, and the disciple as his Lord! This day, at least, let it be recorded in the book of God's remembrance concerning ME, —HE HATH DONE WHAT HE COULD!"

THE COMMITTEE.

DELIVERED, IN SUBSTANCE,

TO THE ANNUAL MEETING,

HELD MAY 2, 1837,

AT EXETER HALL, STRAND.

REPORT,

&c. &c.

It now devolves on the Committee to report the proceedings of the Society during its Thirty-seventh Year. Though that year has not been unmarked by difficulties, it has been abundantly characterized by tokens of the Divine Favour and Blessing, both at Home and in the Missions. May it please the God of all grace to vouchsafe to the Society, in its solemn assembly this day, the presence and quickening influences of His Holy Spirit!

STATE OF THE FUNDS.

It is with feelings of gratitude to Almighty God, that the Committee report the prosperous state of the Society's Finances.

The aggregate Receipts of the Year stand as follows:—

General Fund	71,098	3	0
Disabled Missionaries' Fund	615	4	6
Institution Buildings' Fund	13	13	0
Making a Total of	£ 71,727	0	6

The preceding Year's Receipts stood thus:—

General Fund	67,691	4	2
Disabled Missionaries' Fund	630	7	6
Institution Buildings' Fund	32	18	10
Total	£ 68,354	10	6

It will hence be seen, that there is an increase on the last Year's Receipts of £3372. 10*s.*

An analysis of the Receipts of the Society for the two years is requisite, in order that its financial situation may be clearly understood. The Net Income, from permanent sources, on account of the General Fund, for 1835-36, was £62,716. 15*s.* 3*d.*; deducting the several sums of £2500 Government Grant for West-Indies' School-houses; £1362. 17*s.* 8*d.* for Contributions to the West-Indies' Separate Fund; and £1111. 11*s.* 3*d.* for Waimate Church. The Net Income, from the same sources, for 1836-37; deducting £1819. 18*s.* 8*d.* West-Indies' Contributions; £2694 Government Grant for West-Indies' Negro Education; and £21. 12*s.* 6*d.* for Waimate Church—was £66,562. 11*s.* 10*d.* It hence appears, that, deducting from the General-Fund Receipts of the two years the sums derived from temporary sources, there is an increase in the last year, in what may be considered the permanent sources of income, of £3845. 16*s.* 7*d.*

The amount of Association Contributions in 1835-36 was £52,093. 8*s.* 10*d.*; last year it was £54,363. 10*s.* 9*d.*; giving an increase, under this head, of £2270. 1*s.* 11*d.*

The Expenditure of the Society during the past year, on account of the General Fund, amounted to £69,668. 4*s.* 11*d.*; that of the preceding year was £64,213. 17*s.* 3*d.*; being an increase of £5454. 7*s.* 8*d.* This sum, however, includes £926. 7*s.* for the purchase of an additional piece of Freehold Ground at Islington, adjoining the Institution. The ground in question is immediately in front of the Institution, and the purchase of it had long been contemplated by the Committee, when an eligible opportunity for doing so should be presented. Early in the last year, it appearing that the ground in question was about to be built upon, and that a class of houses was likely to be erected on it which would materially inconvenience the Institution, a negociation was opened with the Proprietors, which terminated in its being secured to the Society. By this purchase, not only what was likely to prove a serious inconvenience to the Institution was prevented; but the openness and airiness of the vicinity secured, and the general healthiness of the Institution promoted.

PATRONAGE.

During the year, the Society has been deprived, by death, of two of its Vice-Patrons, the venerable Bishops of Norwich and Salisbury; of one of its Vice-Presidents, Lieut. General Charles Neville; and of one of its earliest Members, the Rev. Charles Simeon.

On occasion of Mr. Simeon's death, the Committee adopted the following Resolution:—

> Resolved—That the Committee receive the intelligence of the death of the Rev. Charles Simeon, M. A., with mingled feelings of sorrow and Christian resignation; and would, at the same time, record their deep gratitude to Almighty God for His great goodness, in having prolonged the life of that venerable man to so great an age; and for having extended and perpetuated his Ministerial usefulness in the University of Cambridge, and throughout the Church of Christ, through evil report and good report, during a period of more than half a century;—and that, especially, would the Committee express their sense of the important services rendered by him to the Church Missionary Society, from its very commencement, both by large pecuniary contributions, and by his patronage and advocacy of the Missionary Cause, in the University, and in the country generally.

During the year, the Lord Bishops of Chichester, Ripon, and Salisbury, have accepted the office of Vice-Patron of the Society; and the Right Hon. Lord Ashley, M.P., and George Finch, Esq., M.P., that of Vice-President.

ASSOCIATION PROCEEDINGS.

It affords the Committee much satisfaction again to report an increase in the number of Associations. During the past year, fifty-four new ones have been formed, and several old ones re-organized.

It is with pleasure that the Committee also record their grateful acknowledgments of the valuable services rendered to the Society by those Clerical and Lay Friends who have aided as Deputations to Associations, during the past year. Such services, the Committee earnestly remind their Friends, are essential effectively to sustain and to extend the operations of the Society at home, in meeting the numerous openings for Meetings and Sermons which are presented in various parts of the country. Indeed, the importance of their being more extensively rendered, in furtherance, under the Divine Blessing, of the great objects contemplated by the Society, rises in proportion as Associations are multiplied. The Committee therefore still feel it their duty to entreat the kind attention of their Clerical and Lay Friends to this means of advancing the interests of the Society at home, and, by consequence, to the sustaining and enlarging of its operations abroad.

MISSIONARIES AND STUDENTS.

DECEASE OR RETURN OF MISSIONARIES.

In the course of the past year, it has pleased God, in His infinite wisdom, to remove by death the following individuals:—Mrs. Bobart, wife of the Rev. H. H. Bobart, who died at Parramatta, on the 12th of January last; the Rev. John Henry Knoth, who died at Caïro, on the 15th of August last, of dysentery; and Mrs. Jones, wife of the Rev. D. T. The Rev. Samuel Gobat, in consequence of the precarious state of his health, has been again obliged to leave his Station in Abyssinia: he arrived, with Mrs. Gobat, at Malta, on the 10th of March; and proceeded from thence, to Switzerland, on the 30th of the same month.

Mrs. Selkirk, wife of the Rev. J. Selkirk, being obliged to leave Cotta on account of ill health, arrived in London on the 23d of June last. The Rev. George S. Faught, and Mrs. Faught, in consequence of ill health, left Galle on the 12th of November last; and arrived in London on the 21st of April.

Mr. William Stearn and Mrs. Stearn, having found it necessary to leave their Station, in Jamaica, in consequence of declining health, reached London on the 23d of April 1836. The Rev. William Morse was also obliged to leave the same place, on account of health, on the 6th of July last; and reached London on the 23d of August.

DEPARTURES AND ARRIVALS OF MISSIONARIES.

West-Africa Mission.—The Rev. John W. Weeks, with Mrs. Weeks, having regained their health, embarked at Gravesend on the 7th of September last, on their return to Sierra Leone; and arrived there on the 10th of October. The Rev. Mr. Thomas Sewell M'Arthur, with Mrs. M'Arthur, and Mr. Joseph Nevey Williams, with Mrs. Williams, sailed from Gravesend, on the 20th of November, for the same place; but in consequence of tempestuous weather, they were obliged to put in at Portsmouth: they sailed from thence on the 23d of December; and arrived at Trinidad on the 17th of February last. The Rev. Charles William Winckler, Mr. Edmund Corner, with Mrs. Corner, and Mr. James Gillies, sailed from Gravesend on the 1st of January last, for Jamaica; and landed there on the 9th of March.

ORDINATION OF MISSIONARIES.

Two of the Society's Candidates, with Mr. Schlienz, have been admitted, by the Bishop of London, to Deacon's Orders, and two to Priest's Orders, including Mr. Schlienz, during the past year; exclusive of two who have been admitted to Priest's Orders, and one to Deacon's Orders, by the Bishop of Gloucester, on Letters Dismissory from the Bishop of London. One has also been admitted to Deacon's Orders by the Bishop of Calcutta; and one to Deacon's Orders by the Bishop of Barbados.

INSTITUTION.

From the Principal's Annual Report to the Committee of Visitors, the Committee extract the following passages, which explain the state of the Institution during the last year:—

The Principal has again to congratulate the Committee, and to acknowledge a great debt of gratitude to Almighty God, for the satisfactory state of the Church Missionary Institution. In point of numbers, it is more prosperous, by nearly a fourth, than it was at the last Anniversary; the health of its members is generally good; and its moral and religious state justify a persuasion, that a Divine Blessing is not less abundantly poured upon it now than heretofore.

During the year, Sixteen Students have been received, in addition to Twenty-four who were in the Institution at the last Anniversary. Of these, Eight—Four Ordained and Four Catechists, have departed to their respective Stations; one has been removed; one has left on account of ill health; three have withdrawn; and Twenty-seven are still resident at the Institution.

The Principal has only to express, in conclusion, his humble confidence, that our Committee, and the Members of the Society at large, will constantly bear in mind how much the object they aim at—the unspeakably great object of converting the Heathen—depends on the efficiency of the Islington Institution, as wrought out in the character of the Missionaries it produces. And since that efficiency can result only from the blessing of God our Saviour, there can hardly be a prayer which Christian love will more fervently breathe forth, than for a double portion of the Spirit of Grace to descend upon this Seminary,—that truly Apostolical men may proceed from it; their hearts imbued with the love of Christ Jesus; their loins girt about with truth; their lips touched, as by a live coal from the altar, to publish salvation; and their holy demeanour adding lustre and authority to the doctrines they zealously inculcate.

NUMBER OF MISSIONARY LABOURERS.

The number of Missionaries sent forth last year was Seven Ordained Missionaries, and Eight Catechists and Artisans. Ten of these being married, the total number of individuals sent forth is Twenty-five. This number includes Two Missionaries and One Catechist, who have returned to their Stations.

The total number at present engaged in the service of the Society, as Ordained Missionaries or Catechists, amounts to One Hundred and Forty-eight; exclusive of Native Teachers, and the Wives of the Married Labourers.

MISSIONS.

WEST-AFRICA MISSION.

Your Committee are thankful in being enabled to state concerning this, the Society's earliest Mission, that it is quietly prospering; the Labourers assiduous, and instant in season, and out of season; the Native Teachers increasingly faithful, and intelligent; the Congregations, and the Schools, for the most part, well attended.

INSTITUTION AT FOURAH BAY.

The Rev. G. A. Kissling has had charge, during the past year, of this Institution: it contains at present 16 Students. Mr. Kissling, at an earlier date, reports as follows:—

With regard to the conduct of the Youths, there being now ten under my charge, I can only say, that it has generally been such as might be expected of them, considering their tender age. I have been particularly gratified by their increasing acquaintance with the Scriptures. When questioning them in our morning and evening devotions, I generally find that they make diligent use of the references in their Bibles, on the portion under consideration.

Their private hours are chiefly spent in reading the Scriptures, though other useful books are accessible to them. The Old Testament, and chiefly the Jewish History, has been explained to them in our evening devotions, by Mr. Raban; while I have endeavoured in the morning to make some practical observations on the Gospels.

FREETOWN.

The Rev. J. Raban has, during part of the year past, been enabled to reside in the Colony, and attend to the duties of Gibraltar Chapel. He has been assisted by the Rev. G. A. Kissling, who thus describes the state of the Congregation:—

There are not a few who delight in the use of the excellent Formulary of the Church, and especially those who have learnt to read.

The responses are given with feeling and devotion, and the voice of the Clerk is drowned in that of the congregation. If the Chapel were twice as large, it would be filled with hearers on Sundays.

He adds, concerning the observance of the Sacred Day—

I cannot but express the high satisfaction which I have felt with regard to the improvement that has taken place at Freetown, in observing the Lord's Day. Nearly all the people whom I have seen moving about in the streets on that holy day, were either coming from or going to a Place of Worship: only a few Europeans, and some Coloured persons—and, oh shame that it should be so!—were taking a ride, or a drive, for their pleasure.

RIVER DISTRICT.

KISSEY—The Station of Kissey has been visited by the Rev. G. A. Kissling, as often as his avocations in Freetown and at Fourah Bay would admit. Mr. J. Warburton, labouring here, reports of the Congregations and Schools—

The attendants on Divine Worship, on Sunday Mornings, continue to be as numerous and attentive as has been mentioned in former Reports. We give, as the average attendance, 800; but there are often as many as 900 present, including Children and Apprentices. Of the latter, I have pleasure in stating that many attend the House of God; though I fear that a still greater number are kept on their masters' farms, to watch the produce, on this sacred day of rest.

The advantages of the Sunday School continue to be valued, the average attendance being 350; many of these are persons of twenty, thirty, and forty years of age, who are labouring hard to be able to read the Bible; which they not unfrequently purchase before they know how to read, that it may be ready against the time that they hope to be able to read it.

There is likewise a School, daily, of upwards of 400 Scholars; Mrs. Warburton having charge of the Girls.

WELLINGTON—Mr. E. Collins, stationed in this village, has succeeded, though with some difficulty, in inducing the parents to pay a very small sum, weekly, for the education of their children. Much zeal has been manifested by the people concerning their place of worship. It is stated—"About six years since, the people of Wellington erected, at their own cost, a neat stone church, 64 feet by 30, which was attended with considerable expense, and no small sacrifice. At the close of last year, however, the flooring gave way; when they discovered, to their great mortification, that the white ants had destroyed the whole of the wood-work. This year they have made a second effort, and have just succeeded in paving the whole building in a neat and substantial manner."

MOUNTAIN DISTRICT.

The Rev. J. F. Schön and the Rev. C. F. Schlenker labour, with the various Catechists, in this District. From their accounts, the following view of each of the Stations is given:—

REGENT—While the Youths born in the Colony are generally able to read, it is to be lamented that among the Liberated Negroes there are many grown-up candidates for Baptism, who find great difficulty in learning to read. The Missionaries, though they do not altogether refuse such candidates, when they discover in them proofs of piety, yet find it hard work to encourage them in learning. The Rev. J. F. Schön reports at this Station—

Many of the Candidates for Baptism give up the hope of ever being able to read the Word of God: it was interesting to hear them bring their excuses forward. One assured me that he had tried very hard, for three years, to learn the Alphabet, but had not succeeded. A woman said: "Master, the time I come to this country, my head too big: it too hard to learn two things one time:" meaning, to learn to speak and to read English. A third told me, that he had bought books preparatory to the time when he should be able to read, but that that time never came; and that his son made use of the books. I am convinced, that however desirable it may be, in general, that an ability to read the Word of God should be a requisite of Candidates for Baptism, it cannot yet be insisted upon among the Liberated Africans.

GLOUCESTER AND LEICESTER — The Rev. C. F. Schlenker has experienced much encouragement among his flock. He remarks—

The Communicants at Gloucester, especially, cause me much joy, by their brotherly love. They would also make an effort to get a better Church; but to bear the whole expense of a new one would be too much for them.

BATHURST AND CHARLOTTE — During the latter half of the year past, the Rev. J. F. Schön, on account of his health, has been stationed at Bathurst. He states, that "the Morning Congregation is very encouraging: about 600 present, who pay much apparent attention to the Word of God."

HASTINGS — This Station, which was related in the last Report to have made so earnest an appeal for a Missionary, has been under the charge of John Attarra, a Native Catechist. He remarks—"I have heard of some who are now attending our Chapel, that they had for several years been devoting themselves to the service of idols or devils." He has had much encouragement in his labours among this people.

The Committee are enabled to report, that the Colony has been improving in respect to healthiness. The latest communications state, that during the whole of last year not a single European had died from the country fever. The general prosperity of the Mission may be gathered from the following remarks, made by one of the Catechists, Mr. W. Young, who recently visited this country for his health. He states—

For the last two or three years, our Congregations have been increasing; and up to the time I left Sierra Leone, in March last, they were never larger. Many of the oldest Natives connected with the Church regularly attend the public ministry of the Word, and faithfully observe the Lord's Day. After a series of falls, separations, persecutions, sicknesses, and deaths, and amidst all the power of the enemy, there perhaps never was an era, in the history of the West-Africa Mission, when it was in a better or sounder state than now.*

SOUTH-EAST-AFRICA MISSION.

The earnest desires of the Committee, which were represented to the General Meeting of last year, to commence a Mission in the Zoolu Country, have subsequently been realized. The Rev. Francis Owen, and Mrs. Owen, together with their Sister, Miss Owen, having offered themselves for this sphere of labour, were accepted; and embarked on the 24th of December last, for the Cape of Good Hope. They were accompanied by Capt. Gardiner and his family. From his Christian society, and previous acquaintance with that region, they would derive many advantages; but their Missionary plans are wholly unconnected with his engagements. The Committee have it in contemplation, early to strengthen this small band of Labourers with such further aid as the blessing of God may enable them to afford.†

MEDITERRANEAN MISSION.

MALTA.

The Rev. C. F. Schlienz has visited this country during the last year; and received Orders in the Church of England, from the Lord Bishop of London. Since his return to

* For further particulars respecting the West-Africa Mission, see the Church Missionary Record, Volume for 1836, pp. 149—155, 201—209; and Vol. for 1837, pp. 1—7, and 73—88.

Malta, he has resumed the Services which he formerly held, in his house at Valetta; and has likewise occasionally assisted the Civil Chaplain in his duties at the Government Chapel. He is also engaged in printing a Version of the Book of Common Prayer in Arabic; a work of great importance, to which he has devoted much attention, and which was revised by the Rev. Dr. Samuel Lee. The expense of printing the work will be aided by the Society for the Promoting Christian Knowledge.

Mr. P. Brenner has been occupied in the superintendence of the general affairs of the Mediterranean Mission; and Mr. Weiss in the business of the Printing Office. Owing to the reduced state of the Society's Mission in Egypt, the issue of Publications from the Malta Press has been much diminished: it amounted last year to 17,429.

GREECE.

Notwithstanding some very unpropitious circumstances, arising from the opposition of the Patriarch of Constantinople to the Greek Schools, and to the Modern Greek Version of the Scriptures, the Rev. F. Hildner has been enabled, by the Divine Blessing, to maintain his position in this Island, undisturbed, and highly prospering. He observes—"Our School Establishment is literally crowded; which, indeed, is very encouraging." The patronage of the King of Greece has in a marked manner been given to these Schools. On his Majesty's arrival in Syra, Mr. Hildner relates—

> The King, after having visited the Public Schools, came to our Pædagogion; where the boys received him, in the lower yard, having branches in their hands, with the shout of "Long live the King!" and in the upper story, the girls received him with singing a suitable hymn, to the tune of "God save the King." On going away, he expressed to me his gratification and thanks.

ASIA MINOR.

It is with feelings of a painful nature, that the Committee report the suppression, for the present, of the Society's Greek Schools in Smyrna and its vicinity. A spirit of opposition to these Schools had broken out simultaneously, in various parts of Greece and Turkey; and in Turkey, the hostile movement was, unhappily, successful. Gradually, but effectually, has the Greek Hierarchy proceeded in denouncing and suppressing these valuable establishments. The Rev. J. A. Jetter, after unsuccessful remonstrances, mournfully relates, July 24, 1836—

> We made an attempt to re-open our Boujah Schools; but only from twelve to twenty children attended. Toward the close of the month, only a few girls still remained for needle-work; and even they, at last, stayed away. Thus closed our Schools here, after they had existed upwards of five years.

Mr. Jetter further reports—

The Bishop, arriving at Smyrna, received a second reproof from the Ecclesiastical Committee there, who accused him of having been bribed. Then he came to Vourlah, read the Patriarch's Letter in the Church, and ordered the books to be collected; to which the Priests paid ready obedience: some were torn, others burnt, and others again they carried to the church, with a view to burn them there. The Masters, also, were prohibited from teaching any longer.

The Rev. P. Fjellstedt is diligently pursuing the study of the Turkish and Armenian languages, at this Station; and has the hope of establishing the Mission on a more permanent footing, in the important inland city of Magnesía.

EGYPT.

The Missionary labours at this Station have been considerably diminished; partly by the retirement of the Rev. T. Müller, on account of ill health, and by the temporary absence of the Rev. W. Krusé, on the same account. The Schools have nevertheless been upheld, by the exertions of the Rev. J. R. T. Lieder.

ABYSSINIA.

The Mission to this interesting country has had to suffer greatly during the past year; first, by the protracted illness of the Rev. S. Gobat, which has obliged him to withdraw from his labours; and secondly, by the death of the Rev. J. H. Knoth, at Caïro, as he was on the point of departure for Abyssinia. His bereaved fellow-labourer, the Rev. C. H. Blumhardt, has subsequently proceeded to that country. Meanwhile, the blessing of God has manifestly rested on the persevering and well-directed labours of the Rev. C. W. Isenberg, who remained alone with his family in Abyssinia. Various important Translations, both of the Scriptures and of the Church of England Prayer-Book, were proceeding under his care.

A feeling of alarm was soon excited among the more bigoted Abyssinians, on occasion of the Translations of our Prayer-Book; and the Missionaries were represented by them as enemies of their Church. The important consequence of this is thus stated by Mr. Isenberg:—

One result of the accusations of our enemies is, the translation of some other parts of the Common Prayer-Book; first of all, that of the Thirty-nine Articles, in order to give a clear survey of the doctrines we teach to every inquirer; then, that of the Communion Service,—as we intend to commemorate the Lord's Supper in future, in the Amharic language, receiving such persons as have a real desire to be united with Christ and His Church; afterward, that of the Morning and Evening Prayer, for the use of our Family Services; and now I am translating the Litany. Thus you may see how it is verified with us, that all things work together for good to them that love God.

An appeal was made against the Missionaries, to the Governor of the Province: his reply was not a little remarkable, as it indicates the dawning of a spirit of toleration in that benighted country. Mr. Isenberg relates:—

When they accused us of having Religious Services of our own, administering Baptism and the Lord's Supper; performing marriages and burials; not attending their churches, observing their fasts, worshipping the Virgin Mary and the Saints; he answered, that, in the same manner as they exercised their Religious Services at their choice, and the Mussulmans at theirs, so we should be at liberty to do as we pleased, because we did nobody any harm.

Mr. Isenberg adds—

You will see that there is much reason for thanksgiving, and much for encouragement; but, above all, there is much reason for prayer. We labour under many difficulties; but our hope is in the Lord. His we are; to Him our whole being is devoted. "To live and to die unto Him who gave His holy life for us sinners," is our watchword. Remember Abyssinia.*

NORTH-INDIA MISSION.

In the various Stations of this Mission, and in many other parts of North India, there is a growing thirst for knowledge of every kind. The spirit of inquiry, moreover, concerning the Christian Faith, and the desire for copies of the Christian Scriptures, are evidently much on the increase.

* For further particulars of the different Stations of the Mediterranean Mission, see the Church Missionary Record, Vol. for 1837, pp. 8—16, 53—61, and 97—100. At pp. 249—252, in the Vol. for 1836, is contained an affecting narrative of the last days of the Rev. J. H. Knoth.

Your Committee deeply regret that it is not in their power adequately to meet these great wants; but, while labouring according to their ability, they would implore the more abundant out-pouring of the Holy Spirit on these parched regions; earnestly looking forward to the hope, that Native Ministers may be raised up, to supply the spiritual necessities of this vast population.

CALCUTTA.

The Rev. T. Sandys and the Rev. J. J. Hæberlin continue their valuable labours at this Station; and have been joined there by the Rev. J. T. Linké. The Rev. J. C. Thompson has charge of the Hindoostanee Congregation.

Mr. Sandys, describing the intercourse between the young Christian Converts in the Institution and Heathen Youths, writes as follows:—

Several heathen young men came, while I was out, for Bibles, and, as I understand, got into a long discussion with Manub, one of the elder boys in the Christian Institution, respecting the claims of the Hindoo and Christian Shasters and Religion. One of the young men wished to prove the truth of Hindooism; and although all the three engaged in argument with Manub, who is much their junior, it afforded me much satisfaction to hear, from Mrs. Sandys, that the Christian Boy conducted the argument with calmness and propriety; whereas the three young men became highly excited, in their endeavours to find arguments to withstand him.

The Committee have it in contemplation to establish in Calcutta a Head Seminary, for the reception of such Native Converts, of superior acquirements and abilities, as may, by the blessing of God, be ultimately prepared for the work of preaching the Gospel to their countrymen—a work which, it is obvious, will never be adequately effected by means of Missionaries brought into the country. Steps have already been taken by the Corresponding Committee toward the accomplishment of this important object.

BURDWAN DISTRICT.

The Rev. Messrs. W. J. Deerr, J. J. Weitbrecht, H. C. Krückeberg, J. T. Linké, and Mr. A. Alexander, have continued labouring at this Station; though, recently, Mr. Linké has been transferred to Calcutta. The following instances are selected from the correspondence of Mr. Weitbrecht, illustrative of his intercourse with the Natives, and of the religious movement gradually taking place in this District. He relates:—

Two ignorant Brahmins endeavoured to interrupt me, by impertinent questions: it requires all the patience of a Christian to bear with such persons, generally the most immoral among the nation: they endeavoured to justify idol worship, in all its bearings. I asked them to show me the fruits of their faith: they were not able. I said, "If you cannot, I must show them;" and exhibited the whole catalogue of vices prevailing among them; all of which can clearly be traced to idolatry as the origin. In conclusion, I assured them that the whole fabric of Hindooism must eventually fall, it bearing the seed of destruction in itself; and stated my firm conviction, that the pure religion of Jesus Christ would grow and be established upon the ruins of idolatry. The Brahmins answered, "May that day be very far hence!" I said, "And I pray daily to God that it may soon be ushered in!"

The Rajah of Burdwan requested me to give him some Bengalee Tracts, which he saw a few days ago, when I returned from preaching in the Bazaar. One of his attendants was ordered to read one; which he seemed to like uncommonly. He said, "Here is nothing that we can object to." A second was read, which was equally commended. He now asked, whether I had a sufficient number to supply all the Writers and Brahmins employed in his palace? I replied, that I could with pleasure supply them all. The next day, 250 Christian Tracts and 25 Gospels were distributed among nearly as many of his people. One after another was called up into his study, and the Rajah himself undertook the distribution. Five years ago, nobody would have thought that a Missionary would be permitted to give away Gospels and Tracts in the house of this wealthy Rajah.

GORRUCKPORE.

The Rev. M. Wilkinson has resumed his labours at this Station; but particular accounts have not been received from him. The Rev. R. V. Reynolds has returned to this country, in ill health.

BENARES.

The Committee rejoice in being enabled to report, that the Gospel obtains increasing influence on the population of this great city. The following statements of the Missionaries abundantly attest this fact.

The Rev. J. C. G. Knorpp thus describes the growing attention to the Holy Scriptures:—

Feb. 29, 1836—We had much conversation with the people this morning; and many Brahmins stood quietly to listen. One of them at last ventured to oppose; but he was so put down by the surrounding people, that he went away quite ashamed. When the Sermon on the Mount was read and explained, one man was so affected, that he openly confessed that this was the truth, and all their religion a system of lies. He then asked for a copy of it.

The Rev. C. B. Leupolt remarks—

A great change has taken place in this city within a short time. The enmity against Christ is increasing; but the attention of the people to the Word of God is increasing likewise. Very few have, of late, come forward to argue; but hundreds listen attentively to the Word of Life: and as Christ has not sent us to argue, but to preach the Gospel, I have preached the Gospel straight-forward; and I always feel happier when I have done so, than when I have spent the evening in arguing. A new era has thus commenced in the Mission at Benares.

Mr. Leupolt adds—

We have been able to procure some places which we can call our own; and in which we can freely proclaim the Word of Life to lost sinners, without being continually interrupted by cavillers. But, besides this advantage, it affords us a still greater one—that of having places where we can spend whole days among the Natives; and I rejoice more on this account, than at being able to preach for an hour without being disturbed. For my part, I am convinced, that unless we associate more with the people than we have hitherto done; live more among them; give up the Sahibship, and become humble fellow citizens with them; become to the Jews, Jews, and to the Greeks, Greeks; or, in other words, to the Mussulmans, Mussulmans, and to the Hindoos, Hindoos; we cannot, humanly speaking, expect much success.

The following remark of a Native Catechist, as reported by the Rev. W. Smith, aptly describes the state of this city, and the need of persevering labours in the same place:—

While coming from the town the other evening, Levi, a much-loved Christian Reader, observed, that this country, in respect to the Word of God, was like a land which had had no rain for several years; and therefore, should only a shower or two fall, it would be dry again immediately: it must be rained upon for months and months, before the effect could be seen. So must the Word of God be preached for a length of time, before the effects can be expected.

CHUNAR.

The Rev. W. Bowley, labouring at this Station, and extensively visiting places around it, describes the following affecting instances of Hindoo superstition:—

This morning, left the city (Patna), and proceeded toward the fair. We walked to a temple, surrounded by devotees, several besmeared with ashes, and logs of wood burning before them to keep them warm. One man is called Khar Eshwur, because he says that he always stands, never sits nor lies down: another was a man with both arms extended above his head, like two dried sticks, so that the poor deluded being has rendered himself dependent on others to feed him. We made our stand before the Khar Eshwur, and entered into conversation with him. He said he had been standing for the last eight years, and should stand four years more, it having been appointed him by his Gooroo. I addressed the people, stating, that no parent desired to see his child in affliction and misery, and that God was good and merciful; but, by such actions as these, they published to the world, that God was a hard master, and delighted in the afflictions of His creatures; that instead of doing God service, they were adding to their guilt.

KURNAUL.

On visiting this Station of the Society, the Lord Bishop of Calcutta communicates the following important and interesting fact to the Committee:—

After leaving Simlah, I first came into the scene of your pious labours at Kurnaul. Here I had the singular pleasure of admitting to the Holy Order of Deacon your celebrated Catechist Anund Messeeh; the first ordination which has taken place in the Upper Provinces of India, in any of our Protestant Societies; and the first instance of a Brahmin ordained to the Ministry of the Church, as Abdool Messeeh was the first of a Mussulman.

Your Committee will conclude their account of the North-India Mission with the following animated passage from a Letter of the Bishop of Calcutta to the Society, while on a tour in the Upper Provinces. His Lordship writes—

All is pregnant with hope. If we once get the machinery to work without material obstructions, nothing can surpass the promise which smiles around us in our Missionary fields: they are white to the harvest. But God will be honoured. Christ must be glorified. The Holy Ghost must be seen and felt, and acknowledged to be the Author of Grace. Perhaps things are kept back in their present merely preparatory state, in order to humble man, and Ministers, and Missionaries, and Bishops, and Societies. And when the hearts of all are duly melted down into contrition and love, the grace, so long waited for, may be vouchsafed in inconceivable abundance.*

* Full accounts of this Mission are given in the Church Missionary Record, Vol. for 1836, pp. 104—113, and 125—141. An interesting notice is also given, at pp. 101—103, of the death of a young Convert in this Mission.

MADRAS AND SOUTH-INDIA MISSION.

MADRAS.

THE Madras Mission has suffered much for want of Labourers. The Rev. C. Blackman was obliged to leave Madras on account of ill-health; and the Rev. G. Pettitt was removed to Tinnevelly, to strengthen that Mission, on the retirement from it of the four German Missionaries stationed there. The Madras Station was then occupied by the Rev. H. Harley, who arrived out in May of last year; the Rev. J. Tucker rendering such assistance in the duties of the Mission as the business of the Secretaryship of the Corresponding Committee would permit. Mr. Harley has subsequently been removed to the Tinnevelly Mission.

MAYAVERAM.

Mayaveram is still destitute of a European Teacher, and it is therefore left under the charge of Native Catechists. This is a very eligible Station, and the Committee are desirous of placing at least three Missionaries at it; but at present they have not the means of doing so.

The Rev. Bernhard Schmid, who was last year reported to have laboured for a short period at this Station, has been obliged, by failing health, to return to this country, after a residence in India of nineteen years.

TINNEVELLY.

The Committee lament that the divisions and troubles in this Mission have not terminated. By the Divine Blessing, however, on the assiduous and affectionate care of the Rev. J. Tucker, the Rev. G. Pettitt, and the other Missionaries of the Society stationed there, the Committee thankfully report, that the work of the Gospel does not languish at this Station. The labours of these Missionaries are indeed attended with many painful circumstances; but they have the comfort of seeing a large majority of the Mission adhering to them, and many Converts walking in Christian simplicity and love, notwithstanding the new and peculiar snares to which they are exposed.

At the request of the Corresponding Committee, this Station was visited, early in last year, by the Lord Bishop of Madras; who, by his gentle, discriminating, and firm conduct, in reference to the troubles of the Mission, greatly strengthened the hands and refreshed the hearts of the Missionaries. The course taken by the Corresponding Committee respecting the Mission was fully approved by the Bishop. Previously to these troubles, the number of Catechists was 121: it is now, notwithstanding the defalcations that have taken place, 103; more than five-sixths of what it had been. The Scholars belonging to the Mission are 2320; who are receiving Scriptural Instruction, from the Catechists and their Assistant Catechists, in 224 villages. The congregations are frequently and regularly visited by the Missionaries.

Mr. Pettitt remarks, that the recent troubles "have made the Christian Religion to be more noticed, talked of, and spread abroad than before." He adds—"That all these things will eventually do good, we must hope and believe; but it is a painful process. However, if it be only a furnace, purifying our own hearts by the Holy Spirit, it will be an unspeakable benefit in the end."

COTTAYAM.

This Station is at present occupied by the Rev. Messrs. Bailey, Baker, and Peet. The Committee regret that they have hitherto been unable to supply the urgent want of a Missionary to take charge of the Syrian College. Meanwhile, an unusual spirit of inquiry has been excited among the Syrians themselves, on the subject of the errors of their Communion, and the nature of the pure doctrines and worship of the Church of Christ. This spirit is increasing; and your Committee earnestly desire and hope that it may, by due regulation, be productive, eventually, of a spiritual revival of that ancient Communion. The Missionaries write—

At the present time, there appears to be a stir among the people generally. We have been induced to draw this conclusion from the numerous applications made to us for such portions of the Word of God as are already printed in the native language, and other books; and from the conversations which we have with the people, who appear to read these books with great attention.

ALLEPIE.

The Rev. T. Norton is enabled to continue his various labours, in Preaching and in Scriptural Translations, at this Station. The following remarks on his exertions are by Mr. Tucker:—

The Mission Compound is situated in the very heart of Allepie. In the front, next to and parallel with the canal, is the neat and spacious Church, capable of holding a large congregation: behind it, on the north, is the dwelling-house; on the west is the Boy's Seminary: and opposite to it, on the east, is the Girls' School-House, built to correspond. The square space between is divided into small gardens; and the four buildings which compose the square, viz. the Church, two School Houses, and the Mission House, are sufficiently distant from each other to prevent inconvenience, and sufficiently contiguous to keep the whole Mission Establishment constantly under the eye of the Missionary and his wife.

The Seminary and Girls' School seem to be better managed than any I have yet seen. The character of the whole establishment is that of cheerfulness, neatness, cleanliness, good order, and proper discipline. The Seminarists, as well as the Girls, never leave the compound, except to walk by the sea-side, under proper superintendence; and the Boys seem to be objects of affectionate interest to Mr. Norton, and subjects of his pastoral care: by their general deportment, I infer that they are sensible of his parental kindness.

The Girls' School is under the anxious and profitable superintendence of Mrs. Norton, and bears the marks of her successful labours. At the time of my visiting Allepie, and for some time previously, Mrs. Norton had been obliged, in consequence of the weak state of her health, to relax in her attentions to the Girls' School; but it appeared to me, notwithstanding, to be in an efficient state.

COCHIN.

At this Station, the Rev. S. Ridsdale has been indefatigably labouring for a period of upward of twelve years. Though many of these toilsome years were spent with little visible result, it has pleased God, at length, to bring forth to view the work which had long been carrying on without observation. He was joined, during the year, by the Rev. W. J. Woodcock, who has since returned home. Mr. Ridsdale thus describes the state of the Mission:—

Our Malayalim Congregation at Cochin has been increased, during the year, by nine converts from Heathenism, and forty-nine from Romanism. Two of the converts from Heathenism are carpenters, who, among others, were employed some years ago in the building of my house; and they ascribe their conversion, under God, to the operation of the standing law, that all residing or employed on the premises, of what creed or caste soever, shall attend the daily exposition and prayers in Malayalim. These men sat under the sound of the Gospel, for some time, apparently unmoved; and when their services were no longer required, they returned to their native place, about fifty miles distant, where they continued a long time struggling with conviction, till grace prevailed, and made them willing to give up all for Christ.

During the past year, forty-seven have been admitted to the Holy Communion; making, with 103 who were in communion before, a total of 150. Within the same period, 200 copies of the New Testament, from St. Matthew to the Acts of the Apostles inclusive; 500 portions, consisting, some of separate Books, and others of two or more Books united, from the Old and New Testaments; and upward of 2000 Tracts, have been distributed in Cochin, and the country around; and I have had several pleasing proofs that the seed thus sown has not been lost.

We have four pious Malayalims under preparation for the Ministry.

Exclusive of these, the Seminary contains, at present, seven young men and sixteen boys. Five of the young men are qualified for Readers or Schoolmasters, and are occasionally employed in those departments; and, beside these, one Catechist and two Readers are constantly at work in Cochin and its neighbourhood.

On occasion of the Visitation of the Bishop of Calcutta, Nov. 24, 1835, Mr. Ridsdale describes the following affecting scene:—

His Lordship delivered a most excellent discourse, on the Apostolical Commission, St. Matt. xxviii. 19, 20: Go ye, therefore, and teach all nations, &c.; and afterward confirmed seventy-seven young persons, nearly half of whom were Natives. Our spacious Church was crowded with attentive hearers and spectators; and when the young of the flock were presented to the Bishop for his paternal benediction, many an eye was suffused with tears, and many a fervent prayer was, I doubt not, offered on their behalf. Several Heathens of the first respectability were present; among the rest, the Dewan (Prime Minister) of His Highness the Rajah of Cochin, a Brahmin, well acquainted with English, who afterward expressed to me his unqualified approbation of all that he had seen and heard.

It will be remembered, that in a former year the Committee of the Church Missionary Society memorialized the Directors of the East-India Company, and the Board of Controul, on the subject of the Pilgrim Tax in India. They have had the satisfaction to observe that the subject has been taken up in Madras; a Petition having been presented to His Excellency the Governor, signed by the Bishop, many Magistrates and Civil Officers of the Company, Chaplains, Missionaries, and numerous private individuals, praying for entire exemption from requirements hitherto existing, by which both English and Native Subjects of Great Britain became participators in various acts of Idolatry or Mahomedan Superstition.

In reviewing the South-India Mission, your Committee would advert to that important crisis which appears to be approaching, from the concurrent operation of various causes. When they combine in one view the present spirit of inquiry in the Syrian Church—the Petition presented, from a large number of respectable persons, to the Government, on the question of participation in Idolatry—the spreading of Education—and the benign influence exercised by the English Episcopate in that Presidency—they cannot but regard these as being so many tokens for good; and they would devoutly pray that all the measures, both of our Civil and Ecclesiastical Rulers, and especially the course of Missionaries and their Flocks, may be directed by Infinite Wisdom, and crowned with blessing, greater than it has yet entered into our hearts to conceive.*

BOMBAY AND WESTERN-INDIA MISSION.

The Rev. Messrs. Farrar and Dixon, labouring at Nassuck, have received a reinforcement of their strength, in the arrival of the Rev. Messrs. Warth and Mengé. The sphere in which they are placed, and the course of their labours, are thus described:—

The population of Nassuck is computed at 30,000. The Gospel is daily preached, directly or indirectly, in the places of public concourse. The jail is visited weekly; and the Native Hospital with more or less frequency, according to the number and condition of the patients. Visits are made to the neighbouring villages; and tours of some length are undertaken, as opportunity serves.

Mr. Farrar relates the following fact, showing the importance of simply preaching to the people, Jesus Christ, and Him crucified:—

When exhorting the people, near the Bazaar, to flee from idolatry, one inquired, "Whom, then, am I to worship?" and again, "How can I know, and worship, the Invisible God?" So long as I spoke of the knowledge of Him from His Word and from His Works generally, he did not seem to gain any notion satisfactory to his own mind. It was not till I spoke of God in Christ that he became contented: he then said, "Ah! now I have got something that I can take hold of!"

The peculiar listlessness of the Natives is found to be a very discouraging circumstance in Missionary Labours

* For particulars of the Madras and South-India Mission, see the Church Missionary Record, Vol. for 1836, pp. 252—278, and 281—289. At pp. 103, 104 is given an affecting account of the death of Mr. and Mrs. Lima, Labourers under this Society at Cochin.

among the Hindoos: yet, notwithstanding this, the Truth often appears to take hold of their minds. Mrs. Farrar, who has much personal intercourse with the Native Women, observes concerning them—

They seldom recollect from day to day what has been told them: at least, they profess not to recollect. To-day, when I asked the women what they remembered of yesterday's reading, they all, with one accord, said, "Nothing, nothing, nothing!" Afterward, however, I found that one remembered that God had told us to keep the Sabbath Day holy: she said she would buy her food on Saturday, and not go to the market on Sunday.

The Bishop of Calcutta, being on a Visitation to this part of his Diocese, was met by Mr. Farrar at Ahmednuggur. Several young persons were here confirmed by his Lordship. Mr. Farrar relates—

It was delightful to witness the pains which the Bishop took to explain to each child the duties which he now for himself vowed to perform; the laborious exertion which he put forth to fix, as a nail in a sure place, the awful responsibility which each lay under, to live according to this his Christian profession; and the minute regulations which he imposed on each child for his guidance and consistent conduct.

Much opposition had been experienced from the attempts of the Chief Council of the Brahmins (Dhurmu Subha) to put down the Schools of the Missionaries: happily, they did not succeed in their plans. Under these painful circumstances, the following truly judicious and paternal consolations were addressed to the Missionaries by the Venerable Archdeacon Carr, subsequently appointed Bishop of the newly-formed Diocese of Bombay:—

I can enter into your feelings of anxiety respecting the proceedings of the Dhurmu Subha; yet am assured that those very proceedings are evidence of a state of things upon which you are to be congratulated. It is plain that the influence of your labours has been felt—felt, too, among themselves; and I should think the alarm of the Brahmins shows, that, from discussions among themselves, they felt that there was danger of their losing their hold upon the minds of the people. The agitation and discussion now going on among them will draw more attention to the subjects of your ministry, and cannot but tend to undermine their principles. New ideas will inevitably be acquired upon the subject of Religion, in direct opposition to their idolatrous system, which will work in their minds like leaven in the meal. It appears to me, that your course is, to pursue such labours as you can during the period of excitement. It would be well to avoid going to those places where any tumult would be likely to be raised; but on no account allow the Brahmins to think you intimidated, or that you have an idea of leaving the field of labour, as this would only have the effect of emboldening them. May the Lord give you all meekness of wisdom, and show you what you ought to do in this time of trial and difficulty!

The Committee have pleasure in stating, that the important work referred to in the last Report, a Translation of the English Liturgy, undertaken by the Rev. J. Dixon, has been completed and printed, and copies have been transmitted to this country.*

CEYLON MISSION.

COTTA.

The Rev. J. Bailey continues his engagements in the general affairs of the Mission; and the Rev. J. Selkirk has charge of the Institution. Mr. Selkirk reports concerning the state of the Institution in 1836—

The Youths recommenced their studies on the 24th of January. Some of them were detained at their homes beyond the time, by sickness; but all are now engaged in their proper work, and, I trust, will continue to make satisfactory progress. In addition to their regular lessons, the First Class read Horne's Introduction to the Scriptures, and Pearson on the Creed.

KANDY.

The Rev. T. Browning has sufficiently recovered his health to continue his labours at this Station; in which he is much assisted by his fellow-labourer, the Rev. W. Oakley. The following observation of Mr. Browning is one which may be considered as expressing, generally, the state of opinion and religious feeling among the Natives of Ceylon:—

In looking over one of the Catechists' Journals, I was happy to observe, in a conversation which he had with a Kandian, that light is gradually breaking in upon the minds of these benighted people. The Kandian told the Catechist, that there were many of the people convinced of the falsehood of Buddhism, but they had not courage to come forward and declare their sentiments, for fear of persecution. May the Lord increase their light, and give them strength to forsake error, and confess the truth!

* For a fuller account of the Bombay and Western-India Mission, see the Church Missionary Record, Vol. for 1836, pp. 173—188; and Vol. for 1837, pp. 21—41.

Mr. Oakley observes, in a Letter of May 13, 1836—

Our Congregations, both in the town and in the country, continue to give us some degree of encouragement. The number of hearers has rather increased of late. The number of children who attend our Schools is also rather on the increase. I wish I could say that we witnessed a work of grace in the midst of our people! To labour, however, in faith and prayer, is the part assigned to us. To give success, belongs to God.

BADDAGAME.

The Rev. Messrs. Trimnell and Faught have continued labouring at this Station; though the health of Mr. Faught has of late suffered so much, as to occasion his return to this country. Mr. Trimnell represents the absurd practice of devil-worship as prevailing to a dreadful extent. Mr. Faught, in a Letter at the close of the year 1835, remarks—

Satan never appeared more active than at present: perhaps he sees his kingdom in some degree tottering to its fall. Within about a mile of our dwellings, a foot-mark has lately been cut in a rock, a fac-simile of the reputed miraculous one at Adam's Peak, for Buddhu; to which the people in crowds resort to worship, and to present their offerings.

It is, however, added—

Our Schools are now regularly attended; our Schoolmasters are better acquainted with the Scriptures; and our congregations hear with greater attention our message of love and mercy.

NELLORE.

The Rev. Messrs. Knight and Adley are at this Station. In a Letter by Mr. Adley, dated Nov. 21, 1835, it is stated—

In our great work, a steady though slow advance is evidently being made: the means of general instruction and knowledge are yearly multiplying around us. Schools, both Government and Mission, for instruction in the English Language, and the branches of a general education, abound throughout the Island, and especially in the Northern Province; and very great is the desire of the Native Youth to secure to themselves the benefits thus offered to them. Light and truth are in this manner making their way over gross darkness and superstitious error.

Of the Mission Seminary, he remarks—

The state of the Seminary continues encouraging. A good and serious feeling is manifest throughout. The inquirers continue steady in their purpose; and are growing in knowledge, and, I would hope, in grace also.†

CHINA MISSION.

On the 28th of June last, the Instructions of the Committee were delivered to Mr. E. B. Squire, on occasion of his departure to enter on such preparatory measures as he may find practicable, with a view to a Mission in China. The Committee have learnt, that Mr. and Mrs. Squire arrived in Calcutta in the beginning of November, and departed for Singapore in December last. The Committee would again most earnestly commend this incipient Mission to the prayers of the faithful servants of Christ.*

AUSTRALASIA MISSION.

NEW HOLLAND.

Further progress has been made, since the last Report, by the Rev. W. Watson, and the Rev. J. C. S. Handt, in this Mission, in the fixing of the Native Language, and in the Translation of some portions of Scripture and the Liturgy. Mr. Handt has subsequently removed to Moreton Bay; and the Rev. J. Günther, who left this country last November, will be associated with Mr. Watson, at Wellington Valley.

The labours of the Missionaries at this Station, though carried on under peculiarly discouraging circumstances, are not altogether without spiritual fruit. The following conversation with their School-children will show the manner in which the Word of God begins to fix itself on their memory and feelings. A fire having broke out in the neighbourhood, Mr. Watson relates—

* See the Instructions of the Committee, addressed to Mr. Squire, on occasion of his departure for China, in Appendix II.

After Evening Prayers, I and the Children went to ascertain if the fire was out. On my way homewards, one of the girls, looking upward, said, "Moon and stars! Ah, there were no moon and stars the first day: God made light the first day: that was the first thing God made." I endeavoured to show her, that the first thing God does in the conscience of a sinner, is, to cause light to shine into his mind.

The Committee are engaging an Agricultural Assistant to this Mission, for the purpose of cultivating an additional grant of land made by His Majesty's Government.

NEW ZEALAND.

In reference to the New-Zealand Mission, your Committee are thankful in being enabled to state, that there are many indications of the continued favour of God resting on the labours of the Society. The Missionaries have indeed been severely tried, especially by the breaking out of a most cruel war, which has occasioned the suspension of their labours in nearly all the Southern Stations in the Island. These, however, had been but recently formed, and were consequently in an imperfect state. The lives of the Missionaries in the Southern Stations have been mercifully preserved; and their labours had, in some measure, been successful in mitigating the calamities of war. In all these circumstances, your Committee recognise the continued favour of the Most High; and they desire still to thank God, and take courage.

Northern Stations.

Tepuna.

The oldest Labourer in the New-Zealand Mission, Mr. John King, reports of his own and his family's engagements at this Station, as follows:—

I am not able to visit each place on one Lord's Day: I therefore endeavour to visit them as often as circumstances will admit on the Sunday, and occasionally on week-days. John, my second son, collects the Natives of the Settlement together in the school, in the afternoon; catechizes, reads portions of God's Word with them, and closes with a hymn and prayer: he has also prayers night and morning with the Natives, when I am from home, or unwell and unable to attend to them. Philip has occasionally visited the Natives on the Lord's Day; and on week-days has made several journeys to Matauri, &c. along the northern coast. Mrs. King, with our eldest daughter, attends to the girls, and to those women who come to Morning Service and wish to attend the school in the afternoon. At Warengaere and Tangitu, two Out-Stations, the Natives have built two Places of Worship, of their own accord; and they have, in general, Morning and Evening Prayers; and catechize one another, and those who may occasionally visit them.

Kerikeri.

From this, as from the other Stations, the Gospel extends its influence to places in the neighbourhood of the Missionaries, both near and far off. Mr. Kemp writes in July 1835—

In the last six months, I have made four Missionary visits to the Natives of Wangaroa, and on the north coast; which visits occupied twenty days. The Natives of the different villages, at which I called, expressed themselves glad in having the opportunity afforded them of hearing the Word of God. About 350 Natives regularly attend Service on the Lord's Days; and at other times, when visited. Two new rush Chapels have been built in the last six months, at the expense of the Natives, for the purpose of holding Service on the Lord's Day.

Mr. Kemp, in reference to the tours made to the neighbouring villages, relates of one place, twenty miles from Kerikeri—

The Chief Tupe, who resides at the heads of Wangaroa, is, I believe, a very sincere seeker of the Truth: he has been very steady and consistent for some time past, and has expressed a desire to be baptized. I have conversed with him on the nature of Baptism, several times; and shall take an early opportunity of having him admitted to that sacred Ordinance. He has built a large Chapel in the village, at his own expense; where he has regular Service on the Lord's Day, which he and his tribe regularly attend.

Mr. Kemp was about to remove his residence to Wangaroa, which was to be occupied as a branch of the Kerikeri Station.

Paihia.

The Rev. H. Williams reports, in July 1835—

There appears to be considerable interest among the Natives in the neighbourhood, relative to their spiritual state. At the Kauakaua, and Kororarika particularly, pleasing congregations are assembled. Tepuke has also generally been visited: there are several very interesting Natives there.

Mr. C. Baker reports—

The Kauakaua party now assumes the appearance of a well-organized Church. The Gospel has done much for this place: it has united parties that were estranged from each other: it has elevated the female character, making the wife a companion for the husband; and has awakened a concern in both for the welfare of their children. The Services of the Lord's Day are regularly observed, when whole families attend Divine Worship.

Waimate.

Mr. G. Clarke enters into a variety of interesting particulars relative to this Station. He states—

Through the abounding goodness of our Heavenly Father, the work of the Lord is, I trust, prospering. The demand upon our time, by the inquiring Natives from our different congregations, is very great. I have sometimes my house beset, before day-break, by Natives coming for instruction: they think nothing of coming the distance of ten miles, and some twenty miles. We have, indeed, often gone forth weeping, greatly cast down at times; but the Lord is, I hope, now giving us to see that our labour cannot be in vain in Him.

Mr. R. Davis remarks—

Our Missionary labours increase upon us. I had upward of ninety people with me in one day, for the purpose of religious conversation; and but few days pass in which we have not visitors of this kind.

Kaitaia.

At this, the fifth-formed Station of the Society, in the Northern Division of the Island, Mr. Puckey and Mr. Matthews thus describe the spiritual state of their charge:—

It is a most pleasing sight, to see different Tribes pouring into the Settlement on the Saturday Evening, to be ready on the Lord's Day, from a distance of four, six, and eight miles; and this constantly: this shows that the Word of the Lord is precious to them. When we first came among them, it was far different: no one would seek us out; but we had to ride sixteen, and sometimes twenty miles, to preach to a few people.

Some opinion may be formed of the difficulties attendant on forming a new Station, from the following statement. Besides the building of a bridge across the main river, these Labourers in the Missionary field report, concerning their secular employments—

Six weeks of our time, with that of our Natives, was spent in cutting a new road from Kaitaia to Waimate. The distance through the forest is thirty-four miles; which, with ten miles of open country at either end, will make the whole length fifty-four miles.

Southern Stations.

Puriri.

Mr. J. Preece writes, at the commencement of 1835, concerning this Station—

During the last three months, I have been engaged in attending to the spiritual and temporal duties of the Settlement. Our Sunday and Week-day Services have been well attended. Mrs. Preece has had charge of the Female School, both on Sundays and Week-days. The average attendance has been fifty.

Concerning his religious intercourse with the Natives at their Meetings, Mr. Preece observes—

It generally occupies about an hour and a half in reading and explaining a portion of Scripture, singing, prayer, and questioning them as to the state and progress of Religion in their souls.

This Station, on account of its unhealthiness, has, at a very small expense, been removed to a spot not far distant, named Houraki.

Concerning the other Stations to the Southward, little was to be reported, beyond the fact of their apparently happy commencement. The Natives, many of them, had hailed the arrival of the Missionaries: the Missionaries had established their Settlements, and were beginning their work of mercy; when, in the mysterious counsels of the Most High, a storm was permitted to burst upon them, which has, for a time at least, suspended the Missionary labours. A savage war, marked by acts of treachery and atrocity never exceeded, broke out among the Chiefs, in consequence of one murder. Mr. Chapman remarks—

Thus has it been painfully verified to us, how great a matter a little fire kindleth. One diabolical murder committed, not fewer than 250 have followed; beside 200 men and children carried into slavery; property belonging to the flax-traders destroyed, to the amount of 1500*l.*; and, with this, the proceedings of three Missionary Stations almost entirely brought to a stand; while fears cannot but be entertained, that some destruction of Missionary property may follow, and the cause, the good cause in which we were engaged, hindered: nor can we hardly entertain a hope that this matter can be brought to a peaceful termination, until more blood has been spilt.

In this truly awful state of things, the Committee are persuaded that all the Members of the Society will feel that a loud call is made on them to be instant and persevering in intercessions at the Throne of Grace, that the power of Satan, that murderer from the beginning, may be restrained and utterly broken; and that peace, even the peace of God, may everywhere prevail throughout that unhappy land. Encouragement may also be drawn from the language used by one of this band of faithful Labourers:—

We are short-sighted creatures; and are apt to be cast down, when circumstances are at all adverse, or prospects discouraging; not duly considering that the Lord can make all things work together for His own glory, and the good of His cause.

In reference to the progress made in the knowledge of the language, the Rev. W. Williams reports—

A Dictionary of the language is now in a state of forwardness, containing about 5000 words. The last nine Chapters of St. Mark's Gospel have been translated; which completes the Four Gospels.

Mr. Clarke also mentions another work:—

The translation of the Pilgrim's Progress is in an advanced state, and will be completed in a few months.

The Printer also states concerning the Gospel of St. Luke, which has been printed—

I have struck off 1000 copies; have bound upwards of 400; and am going on with the remainder. I cannot bind them fast enough for the Natives: they are very impatient to obtain them.

In Civilization, and especially in that important branch of it, Agriculture, this Mission has been distinguished by many mercies. Mr. R. Davis represents—

At our last general Committee, I proposed that you should be written to on the subject of sending us out a fire-engine. This I did from a sense of duty; as our Natives are, I am sorry to say, much addicted to smoking tobacco; and our buildings, being all of wood, are in continual danger from fire.

Mr. Davis, having referred to this necessity of obtaining a fire-engine, adds, under date of March 9, 1836—

Last week, a dreadful conflagration took place in the Settlement: four large native houses were burnt, during a very heavy gale of wind, within sixty yards of two wheat-stacks and a barn full of grain. The wind mercifully blew the fire from the ricks, or nothing could have saved the whole of my premises, which would have been a loss of nearly 2000*l*. The whole country has been alarmingly on fire, and much mischief has been done. The sacred places of the Natives have been burnt up; which has been the cause of much quarrelling among them. At present, we are again pretty peaceable.

The Committee have, during the past year, sent to this Mission a Surgeon, Mr. Samuel Hayward Ford, and his family.* It is in contemplation to establish, at one of the Stations, a Hospital, on a small and economical scale. The need of some such establishment will be apparent, from the following description, given by Mr. Davis, of the miserable ignorance and improvidence of the Natives:—

In times of sickness, they have no necessary comforts to support them. The treatment of the sick, by those who still adhere to their old superstitious customs, is also a great means of increasing their patients' sickness, and depopulating the country. As soon as a person becomes ill, he is made "sacred," and is not allowed to remain in a house; and being exposed to the open air, or merely protected by a temporary shed, his sickness increases, and death, in most cases, is the natural consequence, particularly if it happens to be the winter season of the year.

The Committee feel that there is a sacred pleasure in contemplating the actual conversions which take place in their Missions. These, after all, are the true evidence of the favour of God resting on the work. A few such instances, out of many, are here recorded. One of the Missionary Labourers relates, concerning a pious youth who died at his Station—

* See Instructions of the Committee addressed to Mr. and Mrs. Ford, on occasion of their departure for New Zealand, in Appendix III.; as, also, an Address delivered on the same occasion by the Rev. E. G. Marsh, in Appendix IV.

One day, shortly before his death, I called in to see him: and, in answer to a question which I put to him, he said, "I have one trial: when I pray to God, my heart seems as hard as a stone, and I find that Satan tries to hinder me." I said, "I hope you do not leave off praying, because you find that Satan tries to hinder you." "Oh no!" he said; "I pray very often: my sins are many; I want to have them washed away. Sometimes I lie awake all night, and converse with my Saviour; and my heart is so filled with light, and is so glad! I wish my parents were thoughtful: it would comfort me much, if they were!"

Concerning some of the Natives, who were seeking Baptism, the following description of their religious feelings is given, in their own expressions:—

Three or four men came to talk with me on the subject of Baptism. Here I would observe, that the New Zealanders use very figurative language. After asking one how he felt, he said, "The Holy Spirit has begun to dig at the top of my heart, but works downward very slowly: He seems to need a spade, that He may more effectually work down to the many roots which are there: sometimes there is a great dust in my heart." Another said, "I think my heart is sometimes left to itself, that it may see its own insufficiency." I asked the third, if he had any payment that he could offer to the Lord for his sins. He considered for a minute, and then said: "If I had any thing to offer of my own, Christ would not have been crucified."

Korora is an old man, whose back is bowed down with age. He has frequently visited Mr. Davis for instruction; coming the distance of eight miles with as much regularity as the youngest and most healthy. "I have many sins," said he, "but Christ will take them all away." "What feeling have you of the love of Christ?" "His love," said he, "is not on this side, nor on that side, but right in the middle of my heart." This old man will soon realize the full enjoyment of that love in heaven; and is a glorious instance of what the grace of Christ can do at the eleventh hour. I proposed the name of Simeon for him; for he can truly utter the exclamation of that servant of God, Now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace!

Your Committee close their report of this Mission with a Letter addressed by a Native Chief to the Committee of Missionaries assembled at their usual Meeting at one of the Northern Stations. The truly Scriptural appeal made by this Chief, entreating, in his own name, and in the name of his countrymen, that more Missionaries may be sent out, is such as ought to animate the prayers and exertions of every Member of the Society:—

Sirs—Messrs. Williams, Baker, Brother*, Davis, Hamlin, Kemp, Shepherd, King, and Clarke, now do you listen. Parore, Heke, Patuone, Hara, Aperahama, David, Rouhoho, and Huhu, are very earnest in their solicitations for a Missionary for Kaipara, [to be stationed] either at Mangakahia or Kaihu, that the Gospel of God concerning Jesus Christ our Lord may go forth. Now do look into the Bible, where He saith to His Disciples, The harvest is great, the labourers are few; pray to the Lord of the Harvest that Labourers may be sent by Him into His Harvest. This writing to the Committee is by me, your companion in the love of God.

To Mr. Williams, (signed) by DAVID.

WEST-INDIES' MISSION.

YOUR Committee are happy to state, that, during the past year, new ground has been occupied in this Mission. By means, also, of the renewal of the Government Grant in favour of Schools, progress has been made in that department of labour.

JAMAICA.

Arrangements have been entered into with the Lord Bishop of this Diocese, by the Corresponding Committee of the Society, in pursuance of which your Committee entertain the expectation that their plans will be effectually carried out on behalf of the Emancipated Negroes.

A few extracts from the correspondence of the Missionaries will show the earnest desire of the Negroes for religious instruction; and the great want of Church and School accommodation, under which they labour. The Rev. W. K. Betts, writing from Knockalva, states—

The Argyle Pen School now numbers 100 scholars; that at Alexandria has 73; and the Sunday School has 217; making a total of 390 Scholars receiving instruction in reading, and under religious education. The benefit resulting from these labours shows itself in the improved tone of moral feeling among the people; by a check being put on the prevailing vices of the country; by a better observance of the Lord's Day; by a love for religious reading, particularly of the Bible; and by a few persons making a profession of Religion, which, so far as observation goes, appears to be sincere.

The Rev. H. L. Dixon writes—

I had many more people at Windsor on Sunday, January 1, 1836, than ever have attended me there before; scarcely less than 500. The whole of the house was thrown open; and it was discouraging to me to see companies going away, unable to hear. The increase of hearers is remarkably steady; a few are added each Lord's Day, from the neighbouring estates. So attentive are my regular hearers, many of whom also come to my house every evening, that they can repeat the whole of what I tell them in my sermon.

TRINIDAD.

In this large Island, the Society has established, during the past year, two Ordained Missionaries, and two Catechists, who are proceeding with encouragement in their labours. The Rev. J. G. Mühlhauser remarks on the prospects lying before them—

Trinidad is a great field of usefulness; but it is only now her seed-time. I hope, however, that her harvest-time will come also, and that right early.

BERBICE.

The Rev. J. H. Bernau, hitherto labouring in Berbice, has, with the approbation of the Lord Bishop of Barbados, been transferred by the Committee to the Indian Mission, Bartica Point, Demerara.

DEMERARA.

Mr. T. Youd, who has laboured with considerable success during the last five years, has been admitted, by the Lord Bishop of Barbados, to Deacon's Orders. This Mission has received further accession of strength by the removal to it of the Rev. J. H. Bernau, and family, from Berbice, as noticed above.*

NORTH-WEST-AMERICA MISSION.

This Mission has had to suffer from a variety of causes, during the past year. The outward-bound ships from this country having been driven out of Hudson's Bay, the communication between the Society and its two Missionaries, the Rev. Messrs. Jones and Cockran, was interrupted for twelve months. The Missionaries remark—

Thus are we shut up for a whole winter; without letters; without publications; without school-books; and various other supplies, on which much of our comfort depended.

Another calamity is also stated—

On the 19th of August, 1835, we were visited by a most destructive frost, which destroyed the reward of the farmer, as to agricultural toil, in wheat.

But an affliction of a deeper kind has been appointed by Divine Providence, in the removal of Mrs. Jones, after a very short illness. When it is considered that there were but these two Missionaries labouring, with their partners, in this dreary region, it is not difficult to conceive how heavily her husband, and the Mission, must have felt this loss. Mr. Cockran, writing on this painful subject, remarks—

It is seven years and a few days since the late Mrs. Jones first joined us; and I can say with certainty, that she has supported such an unblemished character, as to die without a single enemy. Yea, I can say more: so pure, peaceable, gentle, pious, and benevolent, has her whole course been, that her death is universally lamented.

Speaking of the spiritual state of his charge, Mr. Jones remarks, under date of Nov. 22, 1835—

The thermometer, at sun-rise, was 15° below zero; which is a very unusual thing, so early in the season. The church was exceedingly cold; but the congregation large and attentive, which made amends. The Middle Church was warm and comfortable, and as full as it could hold. At the Indian Service, I dilated on the reception of the Prodigal Son by the kind and forgiving father. When I came to the expression, I have sinned, I told them, after a pause, with solemnity, to ask themselves if they were in the habit of approaching God with, I have sinned, and under the influence of a similar feeling with that of the prodigal. The impression was greater than I ever witnessed before, and many could hardly refrain from giving vent to their feelings by outcries and tears.

Mr. Cockran also thus describes the powerful influence of the Gospel on those among whom he ministers. Writing in November 1835, he observes—

I preached at the Rapids in the morning, and at the Indian Settlement in the afternoon. Had several applications for baptism from adults. The number of professing Christians here is gradually increasing; and I am happy to be able to state, that all those who have been admitted into the Church, by Baptism, conform strictly to the Word of God. They are regular in their attendance on the Ordinances of God; many of them habitually pray; and they have all been kept, by the mercy of God, from dishonouring their profession by excessive drinking. The efforts which they have made to cast off this, their besetting sin, is to me the most striking proof of their sincerity.*

CONCLUSION.

Your Committee, in closing their Report, desire to make a few general observations on the operations of the Society, both abroad and at home.

By gradual advances, the Foreign Operations of the Society have been extended to various parts of the four quarters of the Globe. Each of its Missions is characterized by some particular feature of difficulty or of success. In Western Africa, after a long series of trials intermingled with seasons of glowing promise, the work is now steadily, yet quietly, advancing: the seed sown by the husbandman seems to be growing up, he knoweth not how; but your Committee thankfully observe, that the Society's labours have not been in vain, for God is giving the increase. If we turn our view to the vast sphere of the East Indies, besides the great work of evangelization, we discern no faint dawnings of intellectual light springing up above the horizon. In the West Indies, we behold our fellow-subjects beginning to breathe more freely; and hastening to receive from this country, under the favour of a gracious Providence, the inestimable blessings of both temporal and spiritual liberty. In other regions, as in New Holland and New Zealand, Christianity and Civilization are gradually gaining ground. The beams of the Sun of Righteousness are cheering even the bleak Northern wildernesses of America. And, to come somewhat nearer to our own land, in regions adjacent to the Mediterranean we see the great work of Scriptural and Liturgical Translation steadily advancing, and every mode of Missionary Labour attempted. In the midst of all these diversified spheres, the Church Missionary Society has to labour; but, labouring with that one instrument, the Gospel, which is the power of God unto salvation, to every one that believeth, it labours not in vain. And, further, your Committee would with gratitude notice the fact, that from every part of the Earth invitations are continually pouring in: the World feels the pressure of the Missionary Spirit: Christians, more numerous and fervent than ever, cherish this Cause: Governments favour it: various Christian Communions are rekindled by it: Literature and Science borrow from it: even Barbarians, in some regions of the Earth, invite and welcome the blessed work; while Chief after Chief, and Tribe after Tribe, seem to stretch forth their hands unto God.

* For accounts of the North-West-America Mission, see the Church Missionary Record, Vol. for 1837, pp. 88—92, and 103—113.

To undertake, and steadily to follow up the duties resulting from this state of things in the world, requires, the Committee are sensible, great faith, strong hope, and unquenchable love. It demands, also, from those who possess a measure of those graces, constant dependence on the promised aid of the Holy Spirit, to bestow on them renewed and inexhaustible supplies of His support. How, otherwise, would they be able to bear the vicissitudes which attend the Church of Christ during her militant estate on earth?

It is, your Committee are aware, natural to feel elated with success, and depressed by failure; and this may render the mind partial to one particular Mission so long as it prospers; and cold, or even desponding about it, when in adversity. But this, surely, is not agreeable to the spirit of faith! What if the blight of a few hours should blacken the vegetation of the earth, and fill the air with pestilent exhalations? Surely that is not the time for the husbandman to let his hands hang down with despondency, as though there never should again be fruitful harvests. If such were the temper of our minds, justly might our Redeemer ask of us, in the language of rebuke, "WHERE IS YOUR FAITH?"

Sympathy, moreover, with our beloved Missionaries, demands that we should persevere alike through good and through adverse events; assured, that in due season we shall reap, if we faint not. For do not THEY persevere? Are not THEY in the fore-front of the battle, and WE far off in the rear? The work that costs US a little self-denial, an occasional alarm, or a passing sigh, costs THEM the sacrifice of country and friends—costs them the privation of many religious privileges, so precious to their own souls, and to their rising families;—it costs them many a pang, to think whether they are satisfying friends at home; and, most of all, whether they are satisfying their conscience and their God. Their personal religious state, and the progress of their Mission, seem so closely bound up together, that every fluctuation fills them with a double measure of anxiety and grief. And do THEY suffer all this, and more; and will not friends at home cheer them with strong and tender sympathy? Have THEY faith to labour, and shall not WE have faith to help? The Committee are persuaded that the Members of the Society are men who will not faint in a day of trial. They are well assured, that the work which was begun in faith will, by the same spirit of faith, be carried on; and that their friends at home, and much more the Missionary Labourers abroad, will prove themselves followers of those Scripture-Worthies, who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, out of weakness were made strong, turned to flight the armies of the aliens.

One solid proof of love to this cause has indeed been given by the Christian Public, in the enlarged contributions of the past year. Gratefully let this be acknowledged as a gift from God Himself, working on the hearts of His people. It calls, indeed, for a godly jealousy on the part of the Society; lest He, who gave the blessing, should have cause for displeasure at any undue exultation in the receivers of it. But it suggests, also, the liveliest anticipations of hope.

Your Committee therefore, in surrendering their duties, would venture to encourage their successors with the thought, Ye shall see greater things than these. Whether it be in the way of yet larger funds, or in the blessings of another kind, cannot be foreseen by man; but, waiting with humble and lively faith on God, the Members of the Church of Christ may confidently expect blessings abundantly exceeding all that they can ask or think. The LORD will not forsake His people, for His great Name's sake. No weapon formed against His Church shall prosper. Even when He himself visits it in judgment, He will still say of His true Spiritual Church, known to Him, Destroy it not, for a blessing is in it. Our Zion may sometimes fear, and her alarms may not altogether be groundless; but spared she certainly will be—nay, more than spared—PROSPERED she will be, so long as she dwells close to the Fountain of life, and delights in imparting its waters to the thirsty nations of the Earth. There is a river, the streams whereof shall make glad the city of God, the holy place of the tabernacles of the Most High. God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved: God shall help her, and that right early. The Lord of Hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge.

INSTRUCTIONS OF THE COMMITTEE TO THE REV. FRANCIS OWEN, MRS. OWEN, AND MISS OWEN, PROCEEDING TO SOUTH AFRICA: DELIVERED NOV. 8, 1836.

DEARLY BELOVED IN THE LORD—

ON occasion of our present solemn assembling, the Committee and the Friends of the Society have cause to be deeply affected in remembering how greatly the God of Missions has blessed us in our former undertakings; while yet they see before them how much remains unattempted in the Heathen World. The Committee are now commencing a Mission in South-Eastern Africa. At every step, they desire to proceed with humility, caution, and dependence on the Divine Blessing. Let the words, God be merciful unto us, and bless us, and lift up the light of His countenance upon us, breathe from every heart; and let them be uttered with the assurance of faith, that the Holy Spirit of God will, in due season, perfect this work; that His way may be known upon earth, His saving health among all nations!

The Mission to the Zoolu Country, in which you, Mr. Owen, together with your beloved partner, and your sister, are about to be engaged, is one entirely new to the Society. The Committee would accept it as a token for good, that, in commencing it, they have the offer of service from one to whom the office of the Sacred Ministry is not new; but who has had some experience of the corruption of the heart, the characters of men, the resources of divine grace, and the rich love of our Saviour toward all who faithfully serve Him. They do not thus express their satisfaction with the idea that it will minister to self-complacency in you, or in those connected with you; but they simply record the experience which you have hitherto had, and their expectation that God will be pleased to use that experience, and whatever other gifts He may have bestowed upon you, for the glory of His own great Name. One feeling, the Committee trust, is foremost and deepest in your heart, as the result of your past experience—a feeling which can find no better words to express itself than, Who is sufficient for these things? Together with this, we heartily recommend you still to keep fast hold of the consolatory thought, that our sufficiency is of God.

The circumstances out of which this Mission has thus far arisen, are already known to you. It originated in the representations of Captain Gardiner, who visited the Zoolu Country in South-Eastern Africa in 1834; and, on his return to his native land, made such appeals to Christians at large, and to this Society in particular, as have been responded to with earnest desires to make some Missionary effort on behalf of that region. With this strong feeling, the Committee have considered it to be their duty to concur; and though they are aware of the responsibility of the undertaking, and the pressing claims of the Missions already existing, yet they venture, with humble faith, to enter upon this, the Eleventh Mission of the Society; committing themselves and their work to the God of Missions, who reveals Himself to His Church in and through Christ, as the Fountain of Wisdom and Goodness inexhaustible.

As to the state of the people of that land whither you are going, the account given by Captain Gardiner, in his published volume, is so full, and so deeply painful, that it might be superfluous for the Committee to enlarge upon it. Suffice it to say, that it is a frightfully living exhibition of the picture drawn by St. Paul of the state of the old Heathen World. And if to this be added the hardships of a barbarous land, and the delays resulting from the language not being fixed, it will be evident that you are entering upon a work which will require your best powers, perseveringly put forth, and sanctified by the grace of God.

All the difficulties which the Committee contemplate, and others that may present themselves, will no doubt be felt with increasing force, the further you advance in this work. New, however, as they will be to you personally, they are not new in the history of the Church of Christ. Even without referring to Apostolic and remote ages, we find, in the modern records of Missionary warfare, abundant instances of enterprise as arduous as yours; and the successes with which it has pleased God to crown the labours of other Societies in South Africa, and especially the labours of this Society in New Zealand, bid us be of good courage, in entering on this new Mission. The object before you, in this undertaking, is the same with that of the Apostle, when the voice from Heaven sent him forth, to turn the Gentiles from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God.

The Committee would now briefly advert to the means whereby you will seek to attain this glorious end.

1. The first is, unquestionably, the preaching of the Gospel. As to the manner of doing this, it must vary according to the opportunities presenting themselves, and your power of using such opportunities. But the simple and exalted work itself is, to testify, to small and great, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ. The plan of eternal mercy, the scheme of man's redemption, you will with joy remember, is revealed from heaven by God Himself. Amid a thousand other methods, by which men may think to better the state of the world, this stands pre-eminent and unalterable, as being the power of God unto salvation. Ignorant as the people are to whom you go, yet you are sustained by the confident conviction that you know God and His gracious Covenant. We know that we are of God: and in this persuasion you may with a cheerful courage go forth to these degraded Heathen, to proclaim the Gospel among them, knowing nothing but Jesus Christ and Him crucified.

2. Another method to be adopted will be, the formation of a Christian School for the Zoolu Children. The grown-up population cannot, indeed, comprehend the meaning of a school, or the advantages that arise from educating children: the very subjects to be taught are to them a mystery: they have never looked beyond instinct and habit; and their only discipline, if even that training may so be called, has been for war. What a youth may learn, what a child, and even an infant, may, by affectionate and wise management, be brought to, is to them utterly inconceivable. Here, again, you have an advantage over them: you know, though they are grossly ignorant of it, that the youngest may spell a word; or imitate the orderly discipline of a school class; or lisp a prayer; or repeat a short verse of Scripture; and thus lay the foundation of character, such as will, in after-life, become a blessing and an ornament to Society. The Committee are solicitous, therefore, that a Christian School should be commenced as soon as practicable.

3. Further, as an important means of grace to these heathen tribes, may be mentioned the benefit of Christian example. In this, the Committee trust that you all will be, as it were, a living Epistle, known and read of all men. Savages cannot read books; but they can read men. They can read the countenance; they can divine the temper; they can comment upon your conduct; and all this they will be sure to do. Aim, therefore, under a conviction of this fact, from the very first, to adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things.

4. The Committee would specially urge upon you, using the utmost practicable speed consistent with literary accuracy, to fix the language or dialect of that part of the country to which your labours may be directed. No words can adequately express the importance of your attaining the native language. The method of conversing, and especially of preaching, through interpreters, must always be defective, and often erroneous. For the sake of this essential acquisition, it may be well even to suffer other plans and purposes to proceed somewhat slowly; bearing in mind, that when once the native language shall have been mastered, every thing else may be expected, by the Divine Blessing, to advance rapidly in your hands, and in the hands of all associated with you.

5. As you proceed in making yourselves acquainted with the language, the Committee would recommend you to be continually preparing Translations; —in the first place, probably, of small Elementary School-books; but chiefly, and as soon as possible, of portions of the Holy Scriptures. Perhaps some of the Parables of Our Lord, as being simple, and referring to natural objects, may be found peculiarly adapted to your first efforts; but the Committee are persuaded that you will set before you no lower a mark than that of eventually translating, or leading others to translate, the whole Bible into the native language.

6. The experience which we have had in New Zealand, and the evident necessity of the case, both point out to the Committee, that you will have to attend, for many years to come, to the introduction of the arts and manners of civilized life among the people of the Zoolu Country. Civilization is the offspring and handmaid of the Gospel. The first branch of it which will require your attention, after you shall have located yourselves and erected habitations, will probably be Agriculture. In this, the Natives, accustomed to a life of pasturage, have much to learn. The Committee purpose, as soon as possible, and according as the opening prospects of the Mission shall appear to call for it, to send you competent Assistants in this important department of your nascent Mission.

The Committee will next advert to the location of the intended Mission. On this head it is, however, in their power only to offer very general remarks; leaving the final decision to depend on the information which you may acquire in the country, in addition to that already obtained by Capt. Gardiner. According to the facts now before the public, it would appear that Port Natal is to be looked to, as suitable for at least a temporary residence, in the commencement of the Mission. Here you will gather the information on which future measures may be grounded; and it may serve, for a season at least, as a point of support to the Mission. The Committee direct their views, however, and earnestly desire yours also to be directed, toward the Interior, as being by far the preferable scene of this Mission. In the Interior, whenever the Mission shall be, through God's assistance, safely placed there, opportunities may be expected to be the most favourable for the acquisition of the language; success in which, as already noticed, is a point of primary and fundamental importance. Here, too, you will best become acquainted with the manners, opinions, and circumstances of the people; whereby your plans for their benefit will be rendered more suitable, and more probably acceptable. While you are becoming acquainted with them, they will grow acquainted with you;—and upon this point the Committee are disposed to lay great stress. For it is not by their hearing about you, but by their enjoying a frequent and somewhat familiar knowledge of your Missionary habits, that the Natives are likely to be moved in your favour. Nor is it a small consideration, that by your advancing further in the Interior, the Natives adhering to you, as well as yourselves and your whole Mission, will be thereby more effectually detached from the contaminating and distressing intercourse of ungodly Europeans.

During your temporary stay at Port Natal, the Committee will not disapprove of your ministering to the English residing there; but without undertaking a regular pastoral charge, or forming a permanent engagement with them.

In forming your judgment of the advantages of any situation, with a view to its permanent occupation, three principal points are to be regarded; viz. Salubrity, as referring to the position and the productiveness of any given spot; Security, for life and property; and, as a vital consideration, Scope for abundant, frequent, and ready access to the Natives, and intercourse with them. It would not be easy for the Committee to say which of these three points is the most essential to the well-being of the intended Mission, since each one is by itself so important. They earnestly pray that you may be guided by Infinite Wisdom and Goodness, in determining, after the maturest information, on that course which may ensure, to the greatest possible degree, all these three advantages in combination.

The Committee would, in reference to the future location of the Mission, simply add, that it will be advisable for you to make further inquiry into the respective claims and eligibility of the Inthlangwain Tribe, and Clomanthleen District; the information at present gained not being sufficient to enable them to pronounce a decided opinion on the comparative claims of each.

Having mentioned the subject of security, the Committee would here advert to the intended appointment of a Government Agent at Port Natal, and the beneficial results which may be anticipated from his residence there. The influence of such a Functionary will be felt on the one hand by the European and other foreign residents; as he will on the spot exercise a salutary controul over them, and restrain them from wronging and injuring the Natives. On the other hand, supported, as he will be, by the official character imparted to him by the British Government at the Cape of Good Hope, he will, by a wise, impartial, moderate, and conciliatory course of conduct, exert a powerful and much-needed influence on the Natives. The effects of such influence may be expected to deter the Natives from summarily avenging wrongs inflicted upon them by Europeans, and to lead them to refer their grievances and disputes with Europeans to his arbitration; and thus gradually to introduce among them feelings, opinions, and habits, which shall mitigate and eventually subdue the lawless ferocity of savage tribes.

That you may enjoy the favourable countenance of His Majesty's Government, your Mission will be recommended to the friendly offices of His Excellency the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, and to the British Agent at Port Natal, through His Majesty's Secretary of State for the Colonies.

It is the desire of the Committee to render the Mission to the Zoolus as effective in its numbers as the funds of the Society, and the relative claims of the other Missionary Stations, will admit. They purpose to send out, as soon as practicable, three other Labourers. One of these, a Clergyman, is actually engaged.

The Committee would specially urge on you the importance of economical expenditure, from the very commencement of the Mission. By adopting, as far as health may permit, the use of the ordinary food of the Natives, as milk, Indian corn, fowls, beef, &c., the cost of the Mission will be rendered inconsiderable, and the means of adding Missionaries proportionably increased; whereas, if European articles were used, beyond what is really necessary, the expense of the Mission might become enormous, and the extension of our efforts for it consequently precluded.

Bills of Exchange should, for the present, be drawn on the Lay Secretary, to meet all the necessary expenses of the Mission. Some arrangements should, if practicable, be made at Cape Town, Graham's Town, or whatever other place may be deemed most eligible, for the negotiation of the Bills; as, also, for procuring and forwarding such supplies as may be absolutely necessary, and cannot be obtained in the Zoolu Country. You will be liberally supplied with articles for the purposes of barter with the Natives, for labour, provisions, &c.

At the early periods of the Mission, and occasionally as may be found expedient, articles will be furnished you, as presents to Dingarn, and other Chiefs, whose protection it may be important to secure. These should be used considerately and sparingly; but when it appears requisite that such presents should be made, the thing should be done frankly and cordially.

The Committee will here briefly advert to the kind of relation which you will probably bear to Dingarn, and to other Chiefs, or persons vested with any authority in the Zoolu Country. As to the personal character of many, perhaps most, of these, it appears but too probable—and recorded facts, indeed, plainly prove it of some of them—that they are men of fierce and licentious passions, acquainted with no law but force and self-will, with hands oft imbrued in blood, and hearts steeled to pity, conviction, or remorse. Yet these are the characters under whom, and occasionally near to whom, you will have to live. The wisdom with which the Missionaries in New Zealand have conducted themselves, in circumstances not very dissimilar, may be a model to you in South-East Africa. They have never sided with one Chief against another; they have sought no influence over public affairs: the utmost they have done, has been to stand in the gap between tribes who were bent on murder and plunder; offering a strong mediation, often, happily, a successful one, between the conflicting parties. There may, perhaps, be even less opportunity for your taking this course in the Zoolu Country, as the various masses of society are less in a state of independence; it being understood that they are, for the most part, under one Sovereign. However this may be, it is still no improbable case, that you may be sometimes appealed to, under circumstances where your good offices, your persuasions, entreaties, and Christian remonstrances, may mitigate the cruelty of a tyrant, and preserve the precious lives of some of your fellow-creatures. To attempt any thing of this nature, however, by interference with the political affairs of the country, would be wholly out of your province. For example, the Treaty made with Dingarn, and the grant of territory made by him to Capt. Gardiner, and whatever of a political character may hereafter grow out of this or similar transactions, are matters with which the Church Missionary Society has no concern. The Committee are the more free to state their views on this point, as they can with sincerity express their deep obligations to Capt. Gardiner for his valuable communications. The Christian purpose of his late visit to the Zoolu Country, the Committee highly appreciate; and they look forward, with earnest hope, to future benefits likely to accrue to our Missionary Labourers, from his example of patience, intrepidity, and devoutness, and from the ardent interest which he takes in the evangelization of the Natives of that part of Africa. But with his own particular plans in that country this Mission is in no wise connected: our proceedings, though grounded mainly on his information, are yet to be kept entirely distinct from the position which he may himself occupy. In brief, your object must be so to act, as to be viewed by the Christian public at home, by the Colonial Government most near to you, viz. at the Cape, and by every Chieftain in the Country, simply as a Christian Missionary; one ready to teach, to pray, to plead for the oppressed, to flee from one city to another, or to stand and face danger, and even to suffer, as Providence may appoint; in strict accordance with those instructions which our Lord and Master, at the very first, gave to His Disciples; and which both He and they illustrated, afterward, by their high example.

The Committee would urge on you the high importance of your keeping regular Journals, and maintaining a regular correspondence with the Society. This duty, it may truly be said, is absolutely necessary; for there are as yet, comparatively, but few facts before the Committee, and they need also to be aided by the views and feelings of Missionaries expressly devoting their whole soul and all their time to this work. Write, therefore, both copiously and constantly; remembering, that while the novelty of many scenes may pass away to you, descriptions accurately given will convey to us ever-new information and interest. Your Quarterly Journal should be made up to March 31st, June 30th, Sept. 30th, and Dec. 31st, and transmitted immediately. Letters should be written by you to the Committee at least once a quarter; and oftener, whenever opportunities may offer, or circumstances require.

In closing this part of their Instructions, the Committee would suggest one preliminary measure of much importance, which they trust you may be able to carry into effect prior to your actually proceeding to Port Natal. They wish that you should avail yourself of your arrival at the Cape of Good Hope, and of your temporary sojourn there, to invite the attention of all Christian friends whom you may be able to influence, and especially the Members of our own Church in that Colony, to the objects and proceedings of the Church Missionary Society. It would be highly expedient to aim at forming, if practicable, an Auxiliary Church Missionary Society at Cape Town, with Branch Associations in other towns. The Committee regret to think, that, with the exception of a few Contributors to the Society's funds, next to nothing has been done in that Colony for the purpose of inviting and attaching many, who are probably only waiting for an impulse like this, to declare themselves our friends and fellow-labourers. The opportunity is seasonable. Prudently, and promptly, therefore, endeavour to unite with you such zealous Christians as may promote our cause. The proximity of your Mission will deeply interest them: its simplicity, as you will be able from these Instructions to exhibit it, will preclude all grounds of prejudice: its details—as in future years you will be able, the Committee trust, to report on you work—will increasingly animate Christians in that region, as well as at home: and a fund may thus be raised, which shall augment more and more the resources of the Missions on the south of that vast and benighted continent.

The Committee desire to add a few words of sympathy and encouragement to those who are accompanying you;—the one, your Christian partner for life, sharing all your sorrows, and your yet more abounding joys; the other, a sister, not only in the flesh, but also in the Lord. Who can fail to be deeply affected with the prospect of those trials, privations, hardships, and revolting scenes, to which you, for Christ's sake, may most probably be exposed? The Committee are persuaded, that, in contemplating these, your own hearts must sometimes have felt some natural pangs of anxiety; but if you have felt them, you have not yielded to them. You have, they are well assured, been supported by that faith which overcometh the world. Oh! may that faith, through the rich communications of the Spirit, ever sustain you in your progress through afflictions, as it now does in the prospect of them! May you be enabled to witness a good testimony, and to exhibit a shining example, to the females more especially, and the rising generation of Zoolu Children! your adorning and your consolations being all received from Him, who bestows on holy women a character far above all price, even the hidden man of the heart, the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit.

The Committee have now only, in conclusion, to renew to you the assurance of their deep interest in all your future proceedings, and their affectionate sympathy with you in all your circumstances. They feel that it is a solemn thing for you thus to dedicate yourselves to the Lord: how much more weighty will this appear to you, when actually surrounded by duties, and perhaps dangers! When thus engaged in your work, however, you will remember who it is that said to an Apostle, My grace is sufficient for thee; for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Like that Apostle, should the power of Christ rest upon you, you will learn even to take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses, for Christ's sake. In all these things you will be enabled to exclaim, When I am weak, then am I strong. Nay, in all these things you will be more than conquerors, through Him that loved us. Seek, then, to have the power of Christ resting upon you. Cultivate, by prayer and watchfulness, that peculiar Missionary gift spoken of by the Apostle, namely, the spirit of power, and of love, and of a sound mind. Exercise yourselves to endure hardness, as good soldiers of Jesus Christ. When nature suffers, quickly remember what the kingdom of grace is gaining, through the labours, patience, and death of Missionaries, accepted through the free grace of our exalted Redeemer. In one word, as St. Paul was an example to Timothy, so do ye also endure all things for the elect's sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.

INSTRUCTIONS OF THE COMMITTEE TO MR. E. B. SQUIRE, ON OCCASION OF HIS DEPARTURE, WITH A VIEW TO OBTAIN INFORMATION IN REFERENCE TO A MISSION TO CHINA:

Delivered June 28, 1836.

DEARLY BELOVED IN THE LORD—

Again the Committee are met on the interesting occasion of taking their farewell of those whom it is a joy to see putting their hand to the Gospel plough, and for whom we earnestly pray that they may never look back. Seasons like the present tend forcibly to remind us of our unworthiness, our insufficiency, and our need of divine grace. Blessed be God! they lead us also to lean on Him, to whom is given all power in heaven and in earth; and who has promised to His Church, Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world.

The Mission on which, with God's help, you are about to enter, is indeed arduous and responsible. It is one which the Committee have long contemplated. Preliminary inquiries, as to the degree in which China may be accessible to the Gospel, have been made; and on the encouraging nature of the answers received, connected with the opening prospects of the commerce of this country with China, the Committee have been brought to the persuasion, that they ought no longer to defer the commencement of this Mission. It is, however, a Mission in which it may be yet necessary for some time to feel their way, rather than at once to enter upon any specific measures. Your past experience in Eastern Countries induces the Committee to expect that YOU may enter on this sphere of labour with some peculiar advantages: and although, under a deep sense of unworthiness and insufficiency, such as forms a leading feature in the character of true Missionaries, you may proceed to your station in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling, yet the Committee would encourage you and your partner to rely, with simple faith and quiet hope, on the promises of God; ever remembering, that with Him all things are possible; and that He often blesses the feeblest instruments, in order that the excellency of His power may be more manifestly displayed.

In turning their view to that immense region to which you are going—to an empire consisting itself of different nations, peopled with hundreds of millions of idolaters—the Committee remark, that the outline of its past history, in reference to Christianity, may be traced in very few words. It is now somewhat more than 300 years since Portugal sent out her ships to seek commerce with China. After twenty years of vicissitudes, they established themselves at Macao. Speedily the Romish Missions followed in their train. The Jesuits, and other Roman-Catholic Orders, contrived, by their skill in the sciences, and by their subtlety in intrigue, to establish themselves in several provinces of the Empire. Vast, however, as were their labours, various as were their successes and their sufferings, there is yet one great blank in the history of more than two centuries, during which nominal Christendom was thus connected with China. The Roman-Catholic Missionaries, though they were learned enough to do it, yet did not give the Chinese the Word of God in their own language. It was not till about thirty years ago, that Protestants, too tardily, directed their labours to this great field. They, true to their system, at once commenced the Translation of the Bible. In fact, to one individual, recently taken to his eternal rest, was this great honour vouchsafed —to translate the whole Bible into the language of China. Following in his steps, other greatly-valued Protestant Missionaries, from Europe and America, have prosecuted the same sure plan of Christian Missions. The Committee are seeking to take part in this blessed work; and bright indeed is the prospect to those, who believe the promise contained in the Sacred Volume, that the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea!

The Committee have been led to consider Singapore as the most advantageous place at which to fix the head-quarters of the Mission. A passage direct thither not having offered, one has been taken to Calcutta; from whence, to Singapore, it is understood that opportunities are frequent at the period when you may be expected to arrive at Calcutta. The Committee desire that you would avail yourself of the earliest of these opportunities.

On your arrival at Singapore, you will make arrangements for your future residence, and, as soon as possible, commence your course of Missionary pursuits. It is possible that you may find that Malacca affords more advantages for the study of Chinese than Singapore. In that case, the Committee recommend that you should go thither for six or twelve months, as you may find requisite, for the acquisition of the language. You will, however, still regard Singapore as your head-quarters; as the commerce carried on there appears to afford more facilities for general intercourse with the Chinese, than any other place in the Straits of Malacca.

In prosecuting the study of the Chinese Language, you will diligently avail yourself of all the helps, both literary and conversational, within your reach. It will be desirable that you should also acquire the Malay; as that language is in general use in those countries.

In these preliminary studies, which it is of prime importance that both yourself and Mrs. Squire should effectually prosecute, it may be well that you should, both of you, as much as is practicable, sequester yourselves from speaking and even thinking in English. The proposal may seem to be arduous; but without some effort and self-denial of this kind, you may find it very difficult to master foreign languages: and if the requisite success in this should not be attained at the outset of your Mission, you may find it impracticable afterward to retrieve lost opportunities. And it is to be remembered, that the comfort, as well as the success, of your future operations must depend materially on your feeling yourselves perfectly at ease in the language of the people to whom you go.

During the time, however, in which you are thus laying the foundation of intercourse with the Chinese People, you will be also applying yourself diligently to the acquisition of every kind of useful information concerning the state of China. Every fact, every opinion, every reflection, every document, which may enable you to enter intelligently upon your labours, should be carefully recorded. These labours will form the first stage of the present undertaking.

In pursuance of what has now been suggested, it will, moreover, be your duty to open a correspondence with such individuals as may be able to assist you with their knowledge and counsels; especially, the Rev. W. H. Medhurst, and the Rev. C. Gutzlaff.

When sufficiently qualified in the language, and in general information, to enter upon your exploratory labours, it is the wish of the Committee that you should visit some of those places, which the information that you have been gaining may have led you to consider the best calculated to further the objects of the Mission. Visits of this nature, to the coasts of China, judiciously conducted, will, we doubt not, lead the way to more extensive communication with that country. As this is a subject of much importance, the Committee would point out, more particularly, the objects of these exploratory journeys.

1. The first object must be, to collect authentic information, at every place which you may visit, on all matters connected with the propagation of the Gospel in China itself; whether by the distribution of the Holy Scriptures, and of religious books and Tracts; by Schools; by conversations or discussions with the Chinese; by visiting them, or residing among them. Information on these matters, gained by your own personal observation and experience, and carefully digested with your own views upon them, will undoubtedly open new scenes to the Committee, and serve for their guidance in their future measures.

2. The Committee would further desire you, in these journeys, specifically to sketch plans of Missionary operations; not taking merely general views, but, as nearly as the case may admit, delineating particular measures; which the Committee may take as the basis of their deliberation, and act on to such an extent as the means of the Society shall admit.

In reference to this object, the Committee would caution you against forming a hasty judgment or sanguine expectations. Many plans appear, at first sight, to be most promising openings, which afterward, on a maturer view, are found to be either not judicious, or not practicable. Men of Christian enterprise must not allow themselves to be discouraged by these after-discoveries. It is by perpetual research, and persevering invention, that something is at length effected; and not only something, but the best; since God never fails, in the end, to reward patience, humility, and zeal, with His timely favour.

3. The Committee would remind you of the opportunities furnished by these exploratory journeys, of perfecting your knowledge of the Chinese Language, and of gaining information respecting its various dialects.

4. It will be very important, moreover, that you should note down every thing descriptive of the peculiar genius, habits, and manners of the people, especially in reference to the influence of Christianity upon them. Your own mind, already conversant with Eastern feelings, will gradually adapt itself, more and more, to bear with the tastes and tempers of the Natives, and, in matters indifferent, to conform to them. This is a point on which much will depend, with regard both to your own personal comfort, and to the acceptableness of your intercourse with the Natives themselves.

5. The preceding remark introduces the notice of another object, to be promoted by your exploratory journeys;—this is, the formation of personal acquaintances and friendships with all suitable persons, European or Native, who shall appear likely to favour or aid the Mission. These links of personal interest in your labours are of great value. The Committee hope that they may be extended to a lengthened chain, throughout the remotest parts of China. They may begin, and some of them may end, in mere worldly or politic good-will; but other well-chosen and well-cultivated friendships may lead to affection, to conversion, and even to the widest propagation of the Gospel.

In transacting the details of these operations, the Committee request of you to keep up constant correspondence with them; writing from Calcutta, and from other places, as frequently as possible;—quarterly, at least, if opportunity offers.

The Committee would also remind you of the necessity of keeping a regular Journal, and of the importance of never being in arrears with it. The copies of your Journal for the Society should be closed quarterly, at March 31st, June 30th, September 30th, and December 31st, and despatched as soon as possible after each quarter-day.

The Committee are unable to assign you a fixed salary, both on account of their not having sufficient information of the cost of the necessaries of life in that part of the world whither you are going, and of the frequent journeyings in which it is requisite, for the successful prosecution of the Mission, that you should be engaged. You will therefore, for the present, draw on the Lay Secretary for your necessary expenses. They are persuaded that you feel, with them, the duty of exercising strict economy in all things. It is not without much anxiety that the Committee have entered upon this new and remote Mission. They earnestly desire, therefore, that you would conscientiously participate with them in the conviction, that great things grow best when they begin with small. The future enlargement of the Mission must essentially depend on the evidence which you can furnish to the Committee that it may be conducted within economical limits. You will keep full and exact accounts, therefore, of the expenditure of all moneys, according to forms with which you will be furnished; and transmit the same, half-yearly, with your Journal.

In parting with you, Dear Brother and Sister, perhaps never more to see your face in the flesh, the Committee desire to leave on your memory one or two remarks, which may serve to keep us all mindful of the communion of saints —that communion, which unites them together, even when most distant, binding their hearts together, inseparably, in the love of Christ. This union of heart is maintained in our common faith by mutual prayers; the object of those prayers being, that we may all be blessed, preserved, and sanctified, both in body and soul, unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. That you may be thus kept, by the power of God, through faith unto salvation, will be our frequent and earnest prayer; you, also, labouring together in prayers for us, that we may all be held fast in the bonds of the everlasting covenant. It is this life of God in the soul of man that we all of us have, throughout our whole course, most watchfully to maintain. For, oh! what would it avail any one of us to be the instrument of converting even a whole empire to the faith of Jesus, and to have so glorious a work celebrated throughout all the armies of heaven and among all the inhabitants of the earth, if that individual were finally to come short of the glory of God, and be himself a cast-away? Remember, therefore, Dear Friends, that the great question is, not merely how a man begins, but, how he continues, and, above all, how he ends. Remember, that grace in the human heart is like a spark in the midst of an ocean: and if this be true of ordinary Christians, how much more is it of those who adventure into those scenes of human life which appear to be the farthest removed from God! But with your special difficulties, look upward, likewise, for special grace: yea, at all times, let these words of the Redeemer be engraven on your hearts, My grace is sufficient for thee.

In reference, also, to your work without, be not discouraged at the smallness of the numbers of the reapers in the vast field that lies before you. You are rather to be comforted by those assurances of the Word of God, which are suited to what you will often feel to be an almost solitary residence in the midst of the Heathen. Be encouraged, then, by the remembrance, that you never are alone: the Lord is with you: to Him there is no restraint to save by many or by few. "What are one, two, or three Missionaries, among so many millions of Heathen?" asks a Converted Native of India;—and his question should fill us, at home, with shame and humiliation. But let the one, two, or three Missionaries, who actually do go forth, answer the question after another manner. "We go, it is true, a very little company, against a mighty host; but with us is the Eternal Father, the Creator of the ends of the earth; with us is Jesus, the Conqueror over sin and death; with us is the Ever-blessed Spirit, whose teaching, whose converting and comforting grace, surmounts all hindrances, and wins its way through courts and camps, through populous cities and arid deserts, through pagan temples and profligate theatres, through fire and flood, through prisons, dungeons, and the abodes of the most wretched; with us are weapons not carnal, but mighty, through God, to the pulling down of strong holds. Where God is, there is strength: our poverty, our fewness, will the more excite His pity for us: only let us be courageous in His cause, and a little-one shall become a thousand, and a small one a strong nation." The Lord hasten this, in His time! Amen!

EXTRACT FROM THE INSTRUCTIONS OF THE COMMITTEE TO MR. SAMUEL H. FORD, AND MRS. FORD, PROCEEDING TO THE NEW-ZEALAND MISSION: DELIVERED NOVEMBER 8, 1836.

DEARLY BELOVED IN THE LORD—

THAT department of the Mission upon which you are about to enter in New Zealand, being in some respects of a new character, the Committee desire, as distinctly as possible, to define its nature and its duties. They heartily rejoice that it has pleased God thus to put it into your hearts to serve His glorious cause in that heathen land; and they doubt not, should life and health and increasing grace be vouchsafed to you, that you may be the instruments, in His hand, of communicating great and peculiar advantages to the inhabitants of New Zealand, and to the large Missionary Band now collected together in that Island.

Your primary object, Mr. Ford, will be, to benefit the New Zealanders medically. In doing this to the utmost of your power, and as opportunities may offer—which opportunities, it is to be expected, will be numerous—you will act on the Missionary principle, common to all the other Members of the Mission; that is to say, you will look for no other remuneration than simple subsistence; devoting your time and professional skill to the work before you, and receiving salary and rations for your necessary expenses, without other pecuniary recompence, either from the Society, or from the parties benefitted by your medical skill.

The Committee make an exception, however, to this general rule, the same as they would make in the case of any other Missionary Labourer in New Zealand; they by no means would preclude you from receiving from the Natives those inconsiderable presents of food, assistance in manual labour, or similar gifts and services, which may rather be considered as expressing their good-will, and a grateful sense of the advantages derived from your medical attendance, than as a remuneration for your services.

The same principle may be admitted, to a certain extent, as applicable to presents which may be offered you by Europeans not connected with the Mission: but while you will consider yourself as exempt from any extra journeys or attention on behalf of such Europeans, the Committee would also remark, that your own peace of mind, and the harmonious feeling of the whole Missionary Band, will greatly depend on your exercising much reserve and caution on this head; so that you may, at all times, stand perfectly clear even of suspicion among your Brethren, in a matter which, in these excepted cases, can only be regulated by a feeling of Christian honour and discretion.

The Missionaries and their families will, of course, be an especial object of your medical care.

In gradually extending the benefit of medical knowledge in New Zealand, the Committee apprehend that you will find it an expedient course to select and train up a few intelligent Native Youths for this purpose. They are, indeed, fully aware that it requires much time, and good opportunities, as well as a skilful training, to form the Medical Practitioner; and that a slight knowledge of this art frequently impels its possessor to rashness, and renders him no very safe counsellor or operator to many of his patients: still, there must be a beginning. Whatever is most simple and safe, you may gradually impart, and commit to such Youths; of whom you should, in fact, generally have a few constantly about you, as a part of your household; selecting them according to their steadiness, seriousness, and capacity; and making it your invariable aim to act towards them in a Missionary spirit, attending to their religious instruction and advancement, while leading them on in such branches of medical education as their circumstances and talents may admit.

The study of the language it will be necessary for you to prosecute with great diligence: the more so, as your medical pursuits will give you the opportunity of enlarging and enriching the Vocabulary already formed by the Missionaries. Scientific terms, indeed, not only are not to be found in their language; but would probably, with great difficulty, be introduced into it: still, there must be many simple terms and phrases, relative to disease and sickness, which it will be important, for their sakes, to fix, define, and augment. It has been stated in print, that the Natives gave to a European Botanist, visiting New Zealand, the names of some hundreds of plants, with a surprising degree of exactness. A fact like this is sufficient to prove that there may exist a considerable copiousness of words collaterally bearing on Medicine.

The Committee intend that your station should be in the Southern District of the Island; and at such a central point, as may enable you most conveniently to prosecute your professional labours at all the Stations in that quarter: trusting, moreover, that the providence of God may so bless your own personal exertions, and your training of young Natives, as that the blessing of the healing art may be extended yet more widely, in proportion as more Stations shall be occupied in the South. In assigning to you so wide a range, however, the Committee would be not unmindful of the necessity of prudence in the care of your own health; the sacrifice of which ought not to be hazarded by needless or excessive exposure and fatigue.

In addressing a few words to you, Mrs. Ford, the Committee cannot but feel a deep sympathy with your probable future course, when they reflect that the trials incident to the family of a medical man will be suffered by you with the additional privations and perils of a savage land. Many a time will you and your husband have to commend yourselves, and each other, to the special guidance and protection of the Almighty. But the Committee trust that you have, in this matter, counted the cost; and that you will be endued, especially at seasons of unavoidable separation, with the same strength from above which other Wives of the Missionaries in New Zealand have in like circumstances experienced. The Committee would especially commend to your charge the Females of the Stationwhere your residence may be. Let it be your business and delight to train them up, particularly the younger ones, in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. The system of Infant Schools you will find to be extending itself in New Zealand. Copy the example of your Missionary Sisters in this important department of labour. Your employment, in this way, will be, not only your proper work, but likewise your joy and your consolation; and in pursuing it, we heartily wish you abundant success in the Lord.

There is one remark connected with your Professional pursuits, Mr. Ford, on which the Committee would dwell for a moment, ere they close these Instructions. They are aware, that as to the time and manner in which a medical man may speak on the subject of religion to his patients, there is some question in this country; but, considering your situation, as a Member of a Mission, and the altogether unrefined and deplorably ignorant state of the Natives of New Zealand, they can have little hesitation in recommending you to speak plainly to the sick and to the dying concerning the state of their souls. Indeed, with regard to the mass of those whom you may attend, whether in their habitations or on the field of battle, it will be your peculiar duty and privilege to avail yourself of such visits to administer religious instruction and consolation suitable to their circumstances. The Committee are persuaded that you fully enter into this view; and that you will endeavour, by the grace of God, to act upon it. They will simply add their fervent prayer, that in your many visits of mercy—mercy exercised towards both the bodies and souls of the New Zealanders—a double blessing, from the lips of those that are ready to perish, may often come upon you!

EXTRACT FROM THE INSTRUCTIONS OF THE COMMITTEE TO MR. SAMUEL H. FORD, AND MRS. FORD, PROCEEDING TO THE NEW-ZEALAND MISSION: DELIVERED NOVEMBER 8, 1836.

RECOLLECTIONS OF AN ADDRESS DELIVERED BY THE REV. E. G. MARSH, AT A MEETING OF THE COMMITTEE OF THE CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY, ON NOVEMBER 8, 1836; TO THE REV. FRANCIS OWEN, AND MRS. OWEN, PROCEEDING TO SOUTH-EASTERN AFRICA; AND TO MR. SAMUEL HAYWARD FORD, AND MRS. FORD, PROCEEDING TO NEW ZEALAND.

MY DEAR CHRISTIAN BRETHREN AND SISTERS—

ACCUSTOMED, as this Society is, to part with its friends, and dismiss them to Foreign Stations, it is impossible that we should ever grow callous to the impression of a scene like this. We cannot take leave of our Christian Friends and Fellow-helpers, when they are just going into voluntary exile, in pursuance of the noblest enterprise ever committed to human agency, without having our affections strongly drawn out on their behalf; and our prayers stimulated to the Giver of all Grace, that He may be pleased to prosper their undertaking, and make them wise to win souls.

You, Mr. Owen, are going to a new and untried field of Missionary service. Like the first Apostle to the Gentiles, you will strive to preach the Gospel, not where Christ is named, and not to build upon another man's foundation. You will not find, like other Missionaries, things made ready to your hand; but are willing to visit a barbarous and savage people, who at present know nothing of Christianity, that you may communicate to them that inestimable treasure.

This is what the world will call rashness, because it cannot appreciate its motive: and, indeed, if it be rash to encounter any degree of danger unnecessarily, without reference to the object pursued, the charge cannot be denied. It is, however, a kind of rashness, which is common to every new Mission to a Barbarous People, and without which no such Mission could be undertaken. Nor is the world itself, which derides the motives of the godly, less chargeable, on some occasions, with the temerity which it imputes to others. Is it not rash, in this sense of the word, to enter into the Army or the Navy, where life or limb must be sacrificed at the dictation of another, and in which uncertain wealth is pursued through certain danger? But the fact is, that the true measure of rashness must be taken in connexion with the worthiness of the object to be attained, and with the means provided for the attainment of it. There may be rashness in even the slightest self-exposure, when encountered for the mere gratification of a whim or a fancy; as for the pleasure of riding in a balloon, or of scaling a mountain: and, on the other hand, there may be no rashness in bursting through a room in flames for the purpose of rescuing a child from the burning. Who, then, shall tax with rashness the adoption of the only means which exist, for warning a whole nation of their condition before God, and rescuing their souls from destruction? There are, in this undertaking, motives enough to warrant the rashness; and there is also help enough laid up in One that is mighty, to convert that rashness into prudence. You will, indeed, part with much: you will quit the home of your youth: you will leave the friends whose society has long been dear to you: you will forego the endearments of civilized life: you will surrender the arts, the comforts, and the intellectual resources of European society: above all, you will miss the sound of the Church-going bell, and the meeting of Christian Assemblies in the House of God. But, amidst all these privations, there is one thing of which you cannot be deprived. Go where you will, you cannot go beyond the reach of a Saviour's love. Though you leave civilization and refinement, and equal law and civil liberty, behind you, His arm will be under you still; His eye is ever upon you; His ear will be open to your prayers. The promises of His Word are not circumscribed within local boundaries. But in the interior of Africa, amidst the barbarities of lawless despotism, you will still experience, if you live close to Him, the truth of that unchangeable promise, delivered by His own lips to His disciples: There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for My sake, and the Gospel's, but he shall receive a hundred-fold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions; and, in the world to come, eternal life.

You, however, do not forsake all. You carry with you a wife and a sister, the tenderest ties of life; and, while you have these with you, in whatever part of the world you may be placed, you will be at home: and, besides these, you will be accompanied by other persons, like-minded with yourself, devoted to a common object, actuated by the same faith and hope, and acknowledging the constraining influence of the same love for the souls of the Heathen. You will not be destitute of society. It will be small indeed; but it will be Christian. Surrounded though you may be with scenes of vice or blood, and cast down by the degraded condition of your fellow-creatures, you will be able to retire occasionally into a little cabinet of Christian counsellors, whose every sentiment will respond to your own. Nay, and even in the bosom of your own family you will be able to kneel down, night and morning, to implore the graces which will ever be needful for you, and to intercede for those multitudes whom the god of this world has ensnared.

You, Mr. Ford, are going to a Mission which is differently circumstanced. The Mission to which you are attached, has now had some experience in the work of evangelizing the Heathen; and, although it has still before it a frightful mass of brutal ignorance and ferocity, it is able to bring a great force of Christian truth and practical godliness to act upon it. Indeed, it presents, at this moment, a striking contrast to that prophetic description of an invading army: The land is as the garden of Eden before them, and behind them a desolate wilderness. For certainly it may be said, that a moral wilderness lies before the face of the Missionaries; while behind them, the desert has already begun to rejoice and blossom as the rose.

You, however, are expected to introduce a new feature into the Mission. Your arrival there may hereafter form an era in the history of its progress: for if, besides the personal assistance which you may give to the diseased and disabled, you should be permitted eventually to establish a Hospital, an Infirmary, or a Dispensary, in New Zealand,—I use these terms, though they can only be applicable in a small way for some time to come,—and to train up some of the Native Youths to become your Assistants, and to acquire some degree, however little, of medical knowledge and of surgical skill, that step will be a strong indication of the salutary influence which the Missionaries have already acquired over the minds of the Natives. As the New Zealanders become Christianized, they will lose their native habits, and will need to acquire new ones: and just in this crisis of their national character, it is desirable to imbue them with some relish for the useful arts of life, and with some desire to render themselves serviceable to their fellow-countrymen, by mitigating the severity of disease, and relieving them in some of those various casualties "which flesh is heir to:" and if you should be able to raise up only one or two such persons, who may be qualified to take part with you in the subordinate parts of your profession, you will not only render your own services more effective, but will raise those one or two individuals, also, in the scale of character. This, however, must be left to the blessing of Providence, which we shall not fail to implore on your undertaking and labours.

Your Wife will in the mean while be engaged in more direct Missionary employment; and we look forward with much hope to Mrs. Ford's occupations in instructing the young, both Native and European: she may thus help to form the character of a generation, by which God may be served in New Zealand, when you yourselves shall rest from your labours.

Nevertheless, blessed as the work is in which you will be engaged—blessed in its nature, and in its object, in New Zealand, or in Africa—you must ever remember, that, if you enter upon it in your own strength, you will fail. The true character of a Missionary is to be a man of prayer. I will therefore now address a few words to all the dear friends now immediately before me, on some of the cautions that are requisite to be observed in carrying on any Missionary undertaking with success.

In the first place, it can hardly be necessary to remind you, that in proportion as you are deprived of many of the advantages of Christian conference and counsel, you should be careful to husband the spiritual resources which remain to you. Let private prayer, and family prayer, the study of the Divine Word, sacred meditation, and acts of praise and worship, be cultivated, with increased punctuality and earnestness: these will be your safeguard in danger, your comfort under disappointment, your guide in perplexity and doubt. The Word, which you preach to others, must be your own companion and counsellor; and in every situation, in which you may be placed, you will find that salutary admonition of St. James ever seasonable, Draw nigh to God, and He will draw nigh to you.

Next to this, I will caution you to cultivate mutual love with all your Fellow-labourers in the Mission. In putting these two duties together, I follow a divine example; for our Lord Himself said to His disciples, Have salt in yourselves, and have peace one with another. The salt is the Word of God: THAT you are to have, each of you, in yourselves. Let the Word of Christ dwell in you richly, in all wisdom. But, if you would preserve the salt from losing its savour, you must be careful to have peace one with another. See, said Joseph to his brethren, that ye fall not out by the way. This is a caution eminently suitable to all fellow-travellers toward a heavenly kingdom; but especially needful to Missionaries to a Heathen Nation. The Canaanite and the Perizzite dwell in the land. Let them not witness so unseemly a sight, as that of Christian Brethren at variance! Nothing has ever proved so fatal a hindrance to the success of Missionaries, as a want of unity among themselves. If there be a difference of sentiments, yield. If there be infirmity of temper, forbear. If any one be overtaken in a fault, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness: and, in all things, endeavour to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. These cautions may seem needless to you now, because you are not now under the influence of any temptation; but be sure, that, when the novelty of your situation has worn away, when the first excitement of it has subsided, when the loneliness of your position, amidst surrounding infidelity, has come over your heart with something like a feeling of desertion, you will feel the absence of that stimulus, which in England helps to keep alive the flame of devotion, and to arouse to new exertions a slumbering zeal. Hence there will probably grow up a disposition to become languid and inert; and if, under such circumstances, you do not watch yourselves anxiously, and pray intensely that your faith may not fail, the work of religion in your own souls will decline, and your love for the Brethren will grow cool. The small number of your Brethren will bring all their infirmities into view, and thus render mutual forbearance necessary to the cultivation of brotherly love. As, therefore, you value the growth of grace in your own souls, as you value the cultivation of that mutual love, which St. John has not hesitated to make a decisive test of the sincerity of our religious profession, Have salt in yourselves, and have peace one with another.

There is one other Christian grace, which I will commend to your special attention, as the guardian of all the rest; I mean, humility. If you be not humble-minded, you must not look for a blessing. If God should prosper your labours, beware of being elated, and thinking yourselves some great ones, who have been instrumental to such a result. If you should be tried by failure, beware of being disgusted, like Jonah, as if you were deprived of some distinction which was your due, or as if your services had merited a better result. God did not tolerate an assumption of any portion of that honour which belongs only to himself, even in Moses and Aaron: and all the most distinguished Missionaries, who have gone before you in this work and labour of love, and who have been signally blessed in their ministry, have been eminently humble men. As they have excelled in zeal, in faithfulness, in devotion, in laboriousness, or in compassion for perishing souls, so have they abounded in this grace also; and those who would copy their virtues, must copy this as among the first of them. Be clothed with humility. Be not forward to claim any thing for yourselves. Be contented to do well, and be reviled for it. Be not eager to take credit for whatever God may have done by you. And, while you labour for God, be willing to refer your cause to Him, who, while He resisteth the proud, giveth grace to the humble.

With these words I take my leave of you. May the God of grace be with you! May He abundantly bless your work, and give you souls for your hire!—and, oh! what a reward is this! To save a soul from death—what a privilege! what a blessing! Even to recover a single soul from the dominion of darkness, and to be made the honoured instrument of translating it into the everlasting kingdom of God's dear Son, is alone an ample recompence for all the labour, all the privations, and all the anxieties, which it may cost you: and yet our gracious Lord will not suffer you to be without still more substantial proofs of His favour; for, when the Chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away. Then they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness, as the stars, for ever and ever.

APPENDIX V.

REPORT OF THE MISSION TO THE ABORIGINES OF NEW HOLLAND, FOR THE YEAR 1835:

COMPILED FROM THE SATEMENTS OF THE REV. MESSRS. WATSON AND HANDT.

In presenting this, their Third Annual Report, the Missionaries are happy to state, that, upon the whole, they have reason to believe that many of the Aborigines are improving in Scriptural knowledge. About fifteen children have been under instruction in the course of the year; and of these, generally from four to five were staying with us. The time of their stay was uncertain: sometimes they would remain for months before they took a ramble into the bush; but at other times, a few weeks only, or only a few days. The girls have proved to be more steady and tractable than the boys: one of them has been staying now at Wellington about three years, and another above one year; and they have become useful, in many respects. The children do not want ability to learn, so much as steadiness, and a desire to improve. Their intellect wants merely to be developed, and their habits regulated; and this appears to be the great task the Missionary has to accomplish. It is often with the greatest difficulty that the boys are induced to attend to instruction, or to do a little work: sometimes, however, they will work, and, in general, they attend as regularly to instruction as may be expected.

When the children are spoken to on religious subjects, their minds appear sometimes to be seriously impressed, and they yield a ready assent to all the truths of Christianity; but no real spiritual-mindedness has yet been manifested. So far they have improved, that if one fall into the sin of cursing or swearing, another generally informs the Missionaries of the circumstance, knowing that it is wrong. Great difficulty is sometimes experienced in obtaining the children from their parents and friends; so that entreaties, persuasions, and promises, seem to be of no avail.

With regard to the adults, we had, in general, from eight to twelve staying with us, but sometimes less; at other times, from twenty to thirty, and upward. They are instructed, as opportunity presents itself, at home, or in the bush, or in the camp, by talking, or reading a portion of Scripture, or delivering a short discourse to them in their own language. Their attention is not always to be gained; and even when they are listening to what is said, their minds are easily diverted. That they do not always forget what they have heard respecting Religion, at the Mission House, is evident, from many circumstances which have come under the observation of the Missionaries. One circumstance may be sufficient to establish the fact. While one of the Missionaries was addressing a company of females, forty miles from Wellington, one of them, whom he did not remember having seen before, said, "You talk that way at Wellington." When asked to what place she expected to go at death, she replied, "To heaven, I believe." When it was suggested that that was very questionable, she answered, "No; I believe when want to go, devil, devil, pull down again; not let go."

At Public Worship, their general behaviour is good; but some of their customs and habits render it almost impossible to form a congregation of males and females. The young men are prohibited from going near a native female for several years; and even those men who have wives have an objection to come to church, if there are many females present. This circumstance is attended with many inconveniences; not only in reference to Divine Worship, but also in domesticating them; as, when the females reside in the house, the young men will not come near, and vice versâ. It would, however, be easy to erect a building on such a plan as to domesticate both sexes, without their coming near, or even in sight of each other; as well as to keep those who are domesticated apart from all communication with occasional visitors. The latter point is an object much desired. It is presumed, that if a Missionary Establishment were formed on such a plan, and near to the river, many facilities for advancing the Mission would be obtained. We have known more than one instance of twenty or more Natives leaving their females at this Settlement, when they go into the bush. These must necessarily encamp by the river, there being no accommodation for them at the Mission House. In that exposed situation, they too easily become the prey of vicious Europeans, who not unfrequently draw or compel some to accompany them to their habitations. This circumstance, while it breaks the chain of instruction afforded to the houseless females, tends also to destroy the confidence of the men in leaving them, as they say, with the Missionaries. We are happy to have it in our power to add, that, in some establishments, changes for the better, in reference to Female Natives, have taken place. Old overseers have been removed, and others appointed; so that, where formerly nearly every European servant cohabited with a native woman, not a female is now allowed to remain in any hut on the establishment.

We feel also great pleasure in mentioning, that, in September 1835, a report being in circulation that some of the Bogin Natives had crossed the country, and, having united with some of the Badder Tribes, were destroying cattle, one of the Missionaries thought it his duty to visit them, and to endeavour, by conciliatory measures, to induce them to desist. In prosecution of this object, he travelled, sometimes in company with Natives, and sometimes alone, more than two hundred miles; but without success, never being able to meet with them, although places where they had slept the night previous were several times discovered. It is stated, that when some of the more civilized Natives, who were in company with the depredators, found that they were determined to slaughter cattle, they at once separated from them, and left that part of the country.

It has been found extremely difficult to form an accurate idea of the opinions of the Natives in reference to the Creation of the World, the Creator, the Immortality of the Soul, and a Future State of Existence; as the accounts given by different Natives are frequently at variance with each other. It appears, however, that there is among them a general idea of a Creator who is Himself uncreated. They believe in the immortality of the soul; but what is their idea of its state and employment after death, has not been learnt. They attribute all their afflictions and troubles to an Evil Being—Wandong—who is said to be visible only to their Doctors. They have an idea of an order of Beings—Guinyar—inferior to the Creator, but superior to man. The only kind of worship known among them is the Waggana, or Native Dance; accompanied by singing to Baiami, who annually, about February or March, reveals to some one Native, at a very great distance from Wellington, the song in which all are bound to join, on penalty of death. This song is esteemed sacred by the Natives; who apprehend, that if they were not present at the singing of it, they should die.

Their laws principally, if not entirely, refer to abstaining from certain kinds of food, until they arrive at a certain age; and to the young men evading publicly, not privately, the company and conversation of females. They have no law against murder, and consequently no punishment for it. A man may murder his wife, or child, or any other relative, with impunity; but if a person murder another who is no way connected with him, the nearest of kin to the murdered person will sometimes avenge his death; though this seldom happens, unless the delinquent and the sufferer are of different tribes. It is only in proportion as they become acquainted with the customs of Europeans, and are instructed in morality, that human life is regarded. In their native wilds they sport with the sufferings of man and beast. It is worthy of remark, that in the year 1835, when it was reported at Wellington that a White Man had been murdered by some of the Bogin Tribes, all the Wellington Natives armed themselves, and went to avenge his death; but not finding the perpetrators of the murder, they beat an old man nearly to death, and then returned.

It is a lamentable fact, that their increase is inferior to their decrease, especially as they often kill their half-cast offspring. Four deaths took place at Wellington in the last year; viz. two adults and two children. An adult, a woman, also died three miles from Wellington; and an old man, who was under medical treatment at Wellington, went away, and died. On the other hand, we can only remember three births which took place in the neighbourhood of Wellington, and one of these children was killed. The mother of the child, after having been under instruction at Wellington, was taken away by her husband, and prostituted among the White People; which connexion occasioned the existence of the said child. She was seen a few days afterward, and seriously reprehended for her atrocious barbarity; but she endeavoured to turn off the reproof by a laugh. Another woman, from whom more humanity was expected, was called upon to testify that it was wrong; but she coolly replied, that it was not a pretty child. Cases like these should excite Christian sympathy, and call forth the utmost exertion to rescue these poor creatures from destruction. Such acts are chiefly owing to the wicked intercourse with many of their White neighbours.

To the study of the aboriginal language the Missionaries continue to devote much of their time; as it is expected that through this medium the Natives will more easily receive and readily comprehend the instructions given to them. Of the dialect spoken at Wellington, a Dictionary and Grammar have been composed. The Gospel of St. Luke, and some other parts of Scripture, have been translated; as also several parts of the Liturgy, and Dr. Watts's Small Catechism. It is not to be expected that these translations can be correct; for the beginning must be imperfect, and perfection must be attained gradually. The dialect spoken in this district—extending from Bathurst to beyond Mount Harris, and from Mudgee over the Bogin Country, Warwick, the Lachlan, &c.—has been compared with as much as is contained in Mr. Threlkeld's Grammar; and such is the affinity of one language to another, as to leave no doubt, on the minds of the Missionaries, that the language is radically the same. This, however, will be more clearly ascertained, when the knowledge of other dialects is attained; and to this object the Missionaries feel it to be their duty to pay such attention as their time and opportunities permit. The dialect spoken by the Wellington Blacks is called Wiraduri; that spoken by the Bathurst Blacks, Kandangurra; that of the Mudgee Blacks, Yarruyarru; and that of the Blacks north-west of Mudgee, Kammillarai. The last-mentioned dialect extends to the Hunter, and differs materially from Wiraduri. The others differ more or less. It appears to be very desirable that a small work in the aboriginal language should be printed, as a First Book, for the purpose of teaching the Natives the aboriginal pronunciation; and it would also be a means of correcting the spelling of aboriginal words.

In conclusion, the Missionaries are bound to say, that though, in the prosecution of their labours, daily discouragements arise, they have no doubt of the gradual and ultimately abundant success of the Mission. The great distance of the Establishment from the source of supplies, with the heavy expense consequent thereon, the uncertainty of the seasons for raising grain, and the limited means in the hands of the Managers of the Mission, constitute, among other circumstances, difficulties in the way of giving the Mission the prospect of much success at the present. As it regards the evangelizing of the Natives, the Missionaries look to a higher than human power to effect this object of their desire; ever remembering, that while it is theirs to labour, it is the Lord's to bless.

 Those to which asterisks are prefixed, were preached at St. Ann's, Blackfriars: those marked †, at St. Bride's, Fleet Street; the Twenty-third was preached at Christ Church, Newgate Street; that of the Thirty-first at St. Sepulchre's; the Thirty-second at St. Clement Danes; and the Thirty-third at St. Andrew's, Holborn.

The Collections at the Sixteenth and subsequent Anniversaries include the sums contributed at the Annual Meetings; the Nineteenth and following include a Bank Note of 50*l.*, sent each year by an absent Friend; and the Thirty-second includes also another Anonymous Donation of the same Amount.

☞ It is requested that Committees of Associations will, when it can be conveniently done, close their respective Accounts on the 31*st of December; and transmit the List of Contributors, with a copy of the* BALANCE SHEET, to the Society's Office, addressed to the Secretaries, not later than the end of January.

ASSOCIATIONS IN AND NEAR LONDON.

 Some misapprehension having arisen with regard to the Association Balance Sheets appended to the Society's Report, the Committee beg to state that there is no connexion between those Balance Sheets and the Balance Sheet of the Parent Committee. The Association Accounts are, for the most part, made up to the period of their respective Anniversary Meetings, and thus, necessarily, vary from the Parent Committee's Balance Sheet, which includes the actual payments made at the Society's House between April 1st and 31st March in each year, and is, therefore, quite irrespective of the periods at which, for local convenience, Association Accounts are made up and balanced. An Account Current is kept at the Society's Office with each Association, by which the actual transmission of its receipts to the Parent Committee is shown. The appending to the Society's Report of the Balance Sheets of the Associations may be regarded as a universal acknowledgement to the local Contributors that their contributions have been received by the Parent Committee; though the varying periods at which, as above stated, those Accounts are made up, render it impossible that their totals should correspond with the amount received from Associations, specified in the Parent Committee's Balance Sheet.

It is further to be observed, that there are other causes of discrepancy, beside that of difference in time, which has the effect of swelling the amount acknowledged in the Association Balance Sheets beyond that which is exhibited in the Balance Sheet appended to the Report; inasmuch as Legacies, Benefactions, &c., although paid direct, are frequently claimed by an Association, the Benefactor having lived within the limits of such Association, though the payment was made direct to the Parent Society. As these Accounts have no reference to the Parent Committee's printed Balance Sheet, there has been no hesitation in transferring such amounts, as desired. The effect, however, of this has unavoidably been, in some instances, that the sums transferred have been twice acknowledged; the Committee's Balance Sheet having been made up before notice desiring such transfer was received at the Society's Office.

N.B. Benefactors of Ten Guineas and upward, whose Names have appeared in former Lists of the Associations, will now find them in the General List.
